BRITISH FREIGHT LINER ARMENIAN IS SUNK BY A GERMAN SUBMARINE; SCORE AMERICAN MULETEERS LOST

Some of Dead and Missing Are White and Others are Negroes.

WASHINGTON STIRRED

Inquiry as to Whether Liner Was Not Government Vessel.

Would Possibly be Another Lusitania Affair.

Washington, June 30. — The Dominion freight liner Armenian, flying the British flag and carrying mules from Newport News, Va., to England, was torpedoed and sunk Monday night by the German submarine U-39, off Cornwall, England, and nearly a score of American muleteers aboard are reported lost, according to messages to the State Department today from John S. Armstrong, Jr., consul at Bristol.

Twenty-nine men in all were lost and ten injured.

Was Ship Unarmed Merchantman?

The news created a sensation in official quarters, as it was the first case of loss of American lives since the sinking of the Lusitania. The action of the Washington government, however, depends almost entirely on whether the Armenian was chartered by the British government and was, in fact, a transport of war aboard which Americans would sail at their own risk, or whether she was an unarmed merchantman. In the latter case, even though carrying contraband, the ship should have been subjected to visit and search and those aboard transferred to a place of safety before the destruction of the vessel was attempted, officials hold.

In the absence of conclusive information on these points, officials declined to say what effect the sinking o' the Armenian would have on pending negotiations between the United States and Germany. Immediate inquiry was directed, however, to Ambassador Page at London to obtain more details and when Secretary Lansing returns tomorrow Ambassador Gerard will be instructed to inquire of the German admiralty as to its report.

Submarine Came to Surface.

From the messages received it appears that in addition to the torpedo at least one shot was fired from a disappearing rifle. The consul's report said the wireless house was "taken by second shot." It was not made clear whether Armenian first was ordered to halt and resisted capture requiring a second shot or whether the submarine attacked without warning. The fact that the number of the marines was given indicated that she had come to the surface to make the attack.

Mules are contraband of war, according to all the lists of the belligerents, so there can be no doubt as to the contraband character of the Armenian's cargo. Officials will make an effort to learn, however, whether the vessel was armed and whether she was a part of the British naval forces before the opinion of the State Department on the case will be disclosed.

Wilson and Lansing Notified.

All the dispatches received were promptly telegraphed to President Wilson at Cornish, N. H., and Secretary Lansing at Amherst, Mass., and it was considered probable that they would communicate with each other while in New England.

The messages from Consul Armstrong did not show clearly just how many Americans were lost. In his list of Americans missing he named 23 muleteers—eight whites and fifteen negroes—who were unaccounted for, but later telegrams spoke of Dr. J. S Viso, a Porto Rican, and three negroes as having been picked up by a submarine and other survivors by a Belgian trawler and transferred to two British destroyers which brought them into Bristol.

List of Missing.

The list of missing, as finally made tonight, from Armstrong's reports follows:

E. Williamson, St. Louis.
J. M. Munroe, New Orleans.
B. M. Granbarry, Montgomery, Ala.
S. R. Sutton, Cartersville, Va.
Harry Stone, New York City.
Brown (cattle carpenter), Harrisburg, Pa.
Dr. J. S. Vivo, Porto Rico.
R. I. Brooks or West, (chief foreman of muleteers) London (naturalized American).
Henry, Leroy, Jackson and Speed, Richmond, Va.; Wall, Foley and Little, Newport News, Va.; King, Small, Rickert and Oakes, Norfolk; Smith, Portsmouth, Va., (all negro muleteers).

Unofficial advices here tonight were to the effect that the Armenian had been chartered by the Leyland Line to the Dominion Line, which is understood to have a contract for the shipment of mules for the British government and has made many trips in the

ENGLAND WELCOMES DARDANELLES NEWS

British Advance on Gallipoli Peninsula Reported.

TEUTONS PROGRESSING

Austro-Germans Continue Advance in Galicia and Across Polish Frontier—Armies in West Continue Deadlocked.

London, June 30. — The British advance on the Gallipoli peninsula and continued Austro-German progress in Galicia and across the Polish frontier are outstanding features of the day's war news. The armies in the West continue deadlocked.

From the British standpoint, the account of operations in the Dardanelles sent by General Ian Hamilton is especially welcome, as showing that the British, aided by the French, are able to drive the Turks from their well defended trenches, if the advantage to be gained outweighs the inevitable losses.

What British losses were is not stated, but assaults against the Turks have been costly, and England is prepared to face heavy casualties.

A brief Austrian official communication today indicated that the Teutons were being held up along the Gnila, but a subsequent and fuller official statement made no such admission, although conceding that hard fighting was in progress.

On that part of the eastern front and northwest of Lemberg, it is claimed that the Russians are falling back precipitately, the Austro-Germans having occupied another Polish town, Hawichost, just near the frontier.

The present position of the Russian forces covers a great semi-circle around Lemberg, the two tips of which, north and south of the capital, the Austro-Germans are attempting to roll back. In the meantime, they are hurling great forces at the center, in the vicinity of Tomaszow. The success of this movement would so sever the Russian armies as to leave Warsaw unprotected from the rear, and the desire is to checkmate this apparently expected Russian retirement.

Russia now is in the throes of the campaign to speed up the munitions output.

The seven days allotted by David Lloyd-George, the British minister of munitions, to labor to come forward voluntarily, expired tonight, and, although figures are not available, it is predicted that the response has been such that all idea of compulsion has been abandoned.

EVELYN WILL TESTIFY AGAINST HER HUSBAND

Believed She Wants Thaw to Remain in Asylum.

Reported That She Fears if He is Released He Will Make Will and Cut Her Off From Sharing in His Fortune.

New York, June 30.—Charles K. Mills, of Philadelphia, a witness in the jury trial to test the sanity of Harry K. Thaw, testified today that Thaw believed that his wife, Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, wanted him kept in the Matteawan Asylum so that as an insane person he would be unable to make a will cutting her off from his fortune.

The question, put by one of Thaw's attorneys, was said to have been prompted by a published article quoting Mrs. Thaw as being fearful for the safety of her son if her husband should be released. Mrs. Thaw, who has been served with a subpoena, is expected to testify as a witness for the state next week.

"Thaw told me," Dr. Mills said, "that his wife had motives in wanting to keep him in Matteawan. He did not think she had anything against him personally or was apprehensive for her son, but thought she believed that as long as he was in Matteawan he could not make a will cutting her off."

Testimony relative to Thaw's sanity, given by his mother at his second trial for murder, was read into the record and was unfinished when adjournment was taken until tomorrow.

MRS. THAW FOUND

Was Served With Subpoena at Her Summer Camp.

Malone, N. Y., June 30.—The State's process servers have found Evelyn Nesbit Thaw. She has been served with a subpoena at her summer camp at Lake Chateaugay and will testify against her husband, Harry K .Thaw, in the jury proceedings to determine his mental condition now being held in New York city. It is understood she will go to New York next week.

NO SUCH A WEDDING IN MISSOURI BEFORE

Thousands Attend Marriage of Speaker Clark's Daughter.

THE TOWN CELEBRATES

Miss Genevieve Clark Bride of Mr. James M. Thompson, of New Orleans—Many of National Prominence Present.

Bowling Green, Mo., June 30.—Miss Genevieve Clark, 20 years old, daughter of Champ Clark, was married today to James M. Thomson, publisher of the New Orleans Item.

The ceremony took place on the lawn of Honey Shuck, the Clark homestead —so-called because of the large honey locust trees that adorn the grounds. The bridal party stood under a white pergola, built under a honey locust tree and almost hidden in the foliage.

Promptly at 4 o'clock an orchestra concealed in foliage began the Lohengrin wedding march and Miss Clark, on her father's arm and preceded by eight ushers, eight maids of honor and the bridesmaids, walked from the old fashioned house to the pergola. Speaker Clark gave away his daughter and the wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. Robert S. Hoyd, of Louisville.

Never before in the state has there been a wedding like that of the Speaker's daughter.

A general invitation had been issued to the people of Missouri and from all parts of the state they came by train, carriage or automobile. Thousands of Missourians mingled on the lawn with social and political notables from all parts of the country.

Whole Town Takes Part.

The town of 2,500 inhabitants celebrated the event as though it were a royal occasion. Flags were flying, the streets were gay with bunting and the towns-people vied with each other in making the wedding guests welcome. Wedding cakes were baked by scores of Bowling Green housewives and hundreds of cakes were sent from other towns. Tables were set on the lawn and in the house the wedding supper.

The town presented the appearance of a county seat town at the height of a county fair. Hawkers sold picture postcards of the bride. Refreshment stands adorned the sidewalks. The local police force of two men has been reinforced by a number of special deputies.

The maids of honor were Misses Anne and Sue Bennett, of Kansas City, cousins of the bride; Misses Imogene and Dorothy Thomson, sisters of the bridegroom; Miss Helen Robnett, of Columbia, Mo., fiancee of Bennett Clark, brother of the bride; Miss Murray Sanderson, of Bowling Green; Miss Agnes Wilson, daughter of the Secretary of Labor, and Miss Vera Holcomb. The bride's maid was Miss Jean Roberts, of Alexandria, Va.

Many Notable Guests.

Among the guests were Col. George M. Harvey and Mrs. Harvey; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Watterson, Representative James A. Mann and Mrs. Mann.

The wedding presents were many and costly. President Wilson sent two silver compotes, members of the House of Representatives of the 63rd and 64th Congresses gave a necklace containing 250 diamonds; Secretary and Mrs. McAdoo sent a solid silver pitcher; Justice and Mrs. Lamar a silver salver; Mr. and Mrs. William Randolph Hearst two silver dishes; Mrs. Samuel B. Sneath, vice president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, a set of 60 cut glasses; Col. Watterson, a silver pitcher; Assistant Postmaster General Dockery, a silver vase; former Secretary of State Knox and Mrs. Knox, a silver cake basket; Mayor Curley, of Boston, a set of cut glass lemonade and tea glasses; Mrs. Mary Lockwood, of Washington, one of the founders of the Daughters of the American Revolution, a set of silver and pearl cake knives.

After the festivities Mr. and Mrs. Thomson went north on their honeymoon. Their destination was not announced.

MINE OPERATIONS SUSPENDED PENDING SETTLEMENT STRIKE

American Operatives of Missouri Zinc Mines Go on Strike.

Joplin, Mo., June 30.—Mine operators controlling 50 per cent of the lead and zinc mines in the Webb City, Carterville and Joplin districts today announced they will suspend operations of their mines for two weeks pending an adjustment of the strike inaugurated Monday and which today saw 2,500 American miners out of work.

For three days a body of miners starting from Webb City, has been marching through the various camps, persuading fellow workers to join the strike. Almost 100 of the largest mines have been visited. There has been no violence.

Saloons in Webb City and Carterville have been closed indefinitely and the mayor of Joplin contemplates closing saloons in Joplin tonight if marchers who came here today remain in the city. The men visited mines in the outskirts of Joplin and induced the workers to quit.

RIOTING IS CHARGE AGAINST GEORGIANS

Trespassers on Slaton Premises Are Indicted.

HEAVY BONDS ARE GIVEN

Offense Charged is Misdemeanor Under Georgia Law—Judge Hill Ordered Grand Jury to Return Indictments.

Atlanta, Ga., June 30.—The Fulton county grand jury today returned indictments charging riot against the 26 men arrested by the militia last Saturday in the vicinity of former Governor Slaton's home. The offense charged is a misdemeanor under the Georgia law, punishable by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or a fine not exceeding $1,000, or both.

T. R. Benson, an uncle of Mary Phagan, the girl Leo. M. Frank was convicted of murdering, was among the men indicted. He is a farmer and lives near Marietta. Nearly all of those indicted live in Atlanta. They gave their names as follows:

Names of the Indicted.

C. G. Voyles, Ollie Rudisill, T. M. York, Aaron Keith, L. R. Andrews, T. R. Voyles, E. B. Barrows, Herbert Jeffares, Cecil E. Webb, D. F. Meadows, Jess Smith, R. R. Mitchell, Claude Williams, Walter Fleischer, R. L. Gibson, B. C. Peppers, James Sturgis, A. F. Lee, E. G. Smith, J. W. Wynn, W. A. Ragsdale, E. K. Dahlman, T. R. Bagwell, George Cagle and D. R. Miller.

The men who had been held in the county jail since their arrest last Saturday, were released tonight under bond of $500 each. The date for the trials has not yet been set, but it was announced that the cases would be heard either late this week or early next week.

In charging the grand jury to investigate the cases, Judge Hill, of the superior court declared that "mob violence sounds the retreat of free government and constitutional rights." He said it was a sad day for the history of Georgia if mob law exists.

Judge Hill's Charge.

Judge Hill charged the grand jury to present indictments of riot if it found that two or more had assembled

UNABLE TO DETERMINE DEFICIT OF COUNTRY

Federal Government's Fiscal Year Closed Last Night.

Estimates on Shortage in Treasury Place it Between Forty and Sixty Million Dollars—Postoffice Department Behind.

Washington, June 30.—The business of the Federal government for the fiscal year came to an end tonight with Treasury officials still unable to determine how much of a deficit the account of receipts and expenditures for the last twelve months woluld show. Internal revenue officers throughout the country telegraphed tonight that figures on the last day's returns would not be available util tomorrow.

The deficit today exclusive of the disbursements on account of the Panama canal was well over $75,000,000 but officials were confident that the figures will be materially reduced. The income tax up until today has produced only $40,000,000 but estimates of the total return from this source have agreed on something over $80,000,000.

Congress amended the law so that persons or corporations who do not pay until July 10 are not subject to penalty and there is no way of telling how many are waiting until the last moment to pay.

Estimates of the treasury deficit today is between $40,000,000 and $60,000,000. Correspondents in the last few days, however, have made it apparent there will be no present need for a bond issue, looked upon as a probability of a few months ago.

One fact that officials do not overlook in considering the present condition of the Treasury is that the postoffice Department has run behind something like $10,000,000. Many reasons are given for this development, among the condition of business during the first few months of the war, the closing of stock exchanges for a long period and the falling off in foreign business.

Custom receipts of the government apparently have not been far under what was expected by officials a few months ago. Secretary McAdoo estimated that customs would bring in about $240,000,000, and it seemed probable tonight that the total would not be below $210,000,000.

From all information available now the emergency tax law has not been as good a revenue producer as was expected. The internal revenue bureau has not divided receipts from this source from those from ordinary internal revenue taxes, but it is pretty will understood that the law has not lived up to expectations. Receipts from whiskey taxes in particular have shown a falling off.

BILLION DOLLARS IS TRADE BALANCE OF UNITED STATES

Excess of Exports Over Imports for Year Greatest in American History.

IN FACE OF THE WAR

Department of Commerce Makes Official Announcement—Influx of Gold.

Washington, June 30.—A billion dollar trade balance—the greatest in American history—in a year which has seen commerce depressed by 11 months of world war, is the commercial record of the United States. Official announcement was made today at the Department of Commerce that with the closing of the fiscal year at midnight it was certain that the billion dollar mark had been passed.

"The figures for eleven months ending May 31," it was announced, "show a favorable balance of $983,117,479. As 13 ports which ordinarily handle 90 per cent of the country's foreign trade show for June an export balance of approximately $60,000,000, it is now known that the excess of exports over imports has at this date exceeded one billion dollars, surpassing by nearly $400,000,000 the highest record heretofore made."

Figures indicating that the new high record would be made have been placed before President Wilson and the cabinet from time to time by Secretary Redfield.

Only today's official announcement was lacking. Generally the showing was considered all the more gratifying because it was made despite the paralysis of ocean shipping and the stagnation in the cotton market which depressed America's second most valuable crop.

Not Due to Munitions Orders.

Department of Commerce experts point out that the immense trade balance is not owed to orders for munitions of war. In fact, manufactures generally other than of foodstuffs have been less than in the similar period before the war.

"The normal sales of manufactures during peace," said an official statement on that point, "were greater than those under existing war conditions. Because of this fact and the extraordinary shrinkage of exports of crude materials it is found that the net increase in our total exports has been wholly in foodstuffs."

The movement of gold between the United States and the outside world, which at the beginning of the war was a subject of great concern, has been reversed in overwhelming ratio, and represents payments for American exports.

Enormous Inflow of Gold.

"The inward flow of gold," says the department's announcement, "which became pronounced about the commencement of the current year, continued in May at an accelerated rate, imports amounting to $31,136,311 against $1,972,411 in May, 1914. Gold exports totaled $1,277,554 compared with $16,835,202 in May, 1914. In the eleven months ending May 31, 1915, gold imports totaled $119,227,015, an increase of $56,505,468, while gold exports aggregated $143,402,160, an increase of $79,460,695 over a like period a year ago."

The nearest approach to the billion dollar record was in 1908, when a favorable balance of $666,000,000 was shown for the United States.

In 1901 there was a balance of $664,000,000, and in 1913 of $652,000,000, while in 1914 the balance dropped to $470,000,000. The last time showed against the United States was in 1893.

This billion dollar balance for the fiscal year is distinct from the billion dollar net balance which government officials have predicted would be reached by the United States during the present calendar year. To arrive at a net balance there must be subtracted from the gross balance interest on United States debt held in Europe, tourists' expenses, ocean freights, money transmitted home by alien residents and numerous other items.

Billion Net Balance Predicted.

The big export business done by the United States during May has led to reiteration of predictions of the billion dollar net balance. The sudden decrease in exports for the last week of June was believed to have been due to exceptional circumstances, such as the absence of sailings during that period.

The prediction is made that the exports of explosives will be at least quadrupled and that of fire arms doubled. This, however, would credit the total value of explosives and fire arms with but little more than 1 per cent of the total value of exports.

U. S. SUBMARINE FLOATED.

The H-3, Which Went on Rocks, is Undamaged, is Report.

San Francisco, June 30.—The United States submarine H-3, which went on the rocks last night near Point Sur lighthouse, 115 miles south of here, was floated at high tide late today.

Previous messages that the boat was undamaged were confirmed by a radio message to local naval authorities that the submersible was proceeding to San Francisco. The H-3 started from San Diego day before yesterday.

DESPERATE CONDITIONS IN MEXICO CITY DESCRIBED IN CABLE TO U. S. GOVERNMENT

SCENES OF HUMAN MISERY AND RUIN

Bodies of Men Hanging From Trees and Poles

SEEN BY THE WAYSIDE

Thousands of Hungry Women and Children Huddled in Various Places —Conditions in Mexico Described by a Traveler.

Jalapa, Mexico, June 26 (by Mail to New Orleans, June 30).—Bodies of men hanging from trees and telegraph poles, not in great numbers but sufficiently conspicuous to make the landscape lurid; thousands of hungry women and children crowded into freight cars or huddled besides railway stations; destroyed bridges, wrecked trains and entire villages deserted or ruined, were among the incidents observed today on a journey to Jalapa from Vera Cruz, sixty miles from General Carranza's headquarters. The trip was through what once was one of the richest sections of Mexico. Everywhere it now presents scenes of idleness, ruin and human misery.

Bodies dangling from trees or telegraph poles, some hanged by one faction and some by another as a warning to the enemy that no quarter was to be expected, was reported by Americans arriving from interior points. Two such bodies were in full view of the passengers en route here from Vera Cruz.

Men and Women Killed.

Another incident, typical of others of almost daily occurrence, was the finding on the Jalapa railway station platform of the bodies of a dozen men and women who recently had been killed.

A train load of Carranza soldiers with women camp followers had run on to a bridge from which the rails had been removed by Zapata forces. Several cars listed and the soldiers and women on top of the train fell into the river below. About 40 were injured.

Injuries among the better classes of Mexicans tended to confirm many reports that non-combatants were growing tired of domination of military chiefs and would welcome an end to revolution by whatever means it might be brought about. It was authoritatively stated that President Wilson's recent warning to the military chiefs that they must surrender their personal ambitions to the welfare of the millions of Mexican non-combatants is gaining favor.

Oaxaca State on June 3 decided its independence of revolution and announced that it would maintain its sovereignty until the remainder of the republic was at peace. The merchants

N. C. PRESS CONVENTION IS LARGELY ATTENDED

Editors Enjoying Atmosphere of Mountain Retreat.

Will Give Wilson's Foreign Policy Rousing Endorsements—S. C. Editors Coming Today—President Hammer Speaks.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Montreat, N. C., June 30.—Largely attended, the North Carolina Press Association opened its annual convention at Montreat tonight. The initial session was given up to pleasant formalities, including a big welcome by Rev. R. C. Anderson, D. D., president of the Mountain Montreat Association, and response by Archibald Johnson, editor of Charity and Children.

President W. C. Hammer delivered a powerful address, emphasizing the power, influence and responsibility of the press.

Tomorrow comes the big session, when the South Carolina Press Association will journey to Montreat to join the Tar Heel brethren.

It seems a foregone conclusion that the North Carolina editors will give President Wilson's international policy a rousing endorsement.

Chick Springs, S. C., June 30.—The South Carolina Press Association today adjourned its forty-first annual meeting after selecting Chick Springs as the next meeting place and electing officers. Many of the editors go tomorrow to Montreat to meet with the North Carolina Press Association. Officers were elected as follows:

President, William Banks, the Columbia Record.

First vice president, George W. Brunson, Jr., the Greenville News.

Second vice president, J. R. Mims, Edgefield Advertiser.

Secretary, Joe Sparks, the Columbia State.

Unchecked Mobs Rioting, Looting and Seizing Food Wherever Found

REPORT IS BY COURIER

No Mention Made of Attacks Upon Foreigners, Though This is Feared

Capital Cut Off by Wire and Rail Twelve Days

Washington, June 30.—Desperate conditions in Mexico City, with unchecked mobs rioting and looting, are described in a dispatch cabled to the United States government tonight from Vera Cruz by a courier who left the Mexican capital last Friday, June 25.

When the courier started virtually the entire garrison had been withdrawn to join the Zapata army on the outskirts of the city opposing the attacking Carranza force under General Pablo Gonzales. Gonzalez had been driven back with considerable loss, but was waiting for reinforcements coming up from Vera Cruz before renewing the assault.

No mention was made of attacks upon foreigners, so officials assumed that they were safe. Many stores had been looted, the dispatches said, and great mobs were rioting and seizing food wherever it was to be found.

The despatches were forwarded immediately to President Wilson at Cornish, N. H., and the situation will be laid before Secretary Lansing when he returns tomorrow from Amherst, Mass.

The Mexican capital has been cut off from communication with the outside world by wire and rail for 12 days. The last previous word from there had come Monday night in despatches from the British charge sent by courier who left the city June 23rd, two days before the departure of the messenger who brought the reports received tonight. At that time conditions were only less serious than the latest despatches describe them.

The Zapatistas are said to have nearly 25,000 men, and, although poorly equipped for battle against Gonzales's well armed and plentifully supplied with ammunition, are preparing to fight desperately before leaving the capital to Carranza.

Other reports to the State Department from Vera Cruz said three train loads of Carranza troops left there yesterday to reinforce Gonzales. Every available man, it is understood, is being rushed to the scene.

Fear for Foreigners.

Officials here fear the fighting will be carried into the capital itself, endangering the lives of foreigners. The diplomatic corps is being depended on to take steps to protect the foreign colony.

Dispatches to the Carranza agency from Vera Cruz late tonight announced that a special train loaded with foodstuffs had been sent to General Gonzalez today and would be distributed among the poor of the capital when the Carranza army entered. According to these advices corn is being bought in the interior of Mexico at $25 a ton and flour at American prices.

Department of Justice officials let it be known today that they had no reason to believe that General Felipe Angeles is implicated in the alleged Huerta revolutionary plot.

NO HONORS FOR HUERTA.

Garrison Dislikes Action of U. S. Officers in Fraternizing.

Washington, June 30.—When Secretary Garrison's attention was called to reports that a review had been held in General Huerta's honor at Fort Bliss, Texas, and that the ex-Mexican dictator had been a dinner guest of Colonel Morgan, he telegraphed Maj. Gen. Funston, commanding the border forces, that he thought no honors should be shown a man in Huerta's status.

General Funston at once replied that no review had been given for Huerta. Mr. Garrison did not ask about the reported dinner, but sent general instructions to General Funston to guide army officers in their relations with Huerta.

"I think it manifestly improper," said Mr. Garrison commenting on unofficial border reports, "for one branch of the government to be toasting and feting a man under arrest by another branch."

THREE MORE ARRESTS MADE.

On Charges of Conspiracy With Huerta to Violate Neutrality.

El Paso, Tex., June 30.—Three more arrests on charges of conspiracy to violate United States neutrality laws were developments in the Mexican situation here today. General Marcelo Caraveo and Ike and Frank Alderete, brothers, were taken into custody, making a total of six arrests since General Victoriano Huerta was detained Sunday.

In addition to the general charge, the Alderete brothers are accused of purchasing and mobilizing horses on their ranch east of El Paso. Their case will be called for preliminary hearing tomorrow together with the cases against Huerta, Gen. Pascual Orozco, Jose Zozaya and Caraveo.

It was established today that Salvador Resa, a former Huerta captain, is held by the military authorities at Juarez. It was understood that Villa authorities had planned his execution

Brooklyn, June 30.—Kansas City beat Brooklyn 11 to 2 today by batting three pitchers almost at will, while Chief Johnson was holding the locals safe. George Wiltse, former manager of the Jersey City team of the International League, made his first appearance in a Brooklyn uniform, playing first base.

PENNANT IN 1ST HALF GOES TO ROCKY MOUNT

Will Play Winner of 2nd Half For Season Championship

Down Homers Defeat Newport News in Last Game of First Half of Season—Teams Tied When Game Began.

Rocky Mount, N. C., June 30.—Rocky Mount, by defeating Newport News today, 5 to 3, won the pennant for the first half of the Virginia League season. The two teams were tied when play began today. The club winning the pennant for the second half, beginning tomorrow and ending September 6, will play Rocky Mount for the season's championship.

As great a clash as was ever seen before a larger crowd than ever attended a single exhibition here saw Bud Pope, the Harnett county speed king, send the heavy hitting visitors down in defeat. There was not a run in or a decision questioned throughout the entre game and the Tar Heels won because they found Gardenier and Mullen for hits with men in the paths, while with the Builders this was their one point lacking and, though they sent ten hits safe, two of them for extra clouts, Pope steadied up and whiffed them on strike or easy outs when a hit would have had telling effects.

In the sixth the visitors connected four hits for two runs, while in the seventh the bases were drunk with nobody down but Pope came through with but one run against him and that came on a slow ground ball that retired a man in the paths. From a fielding standpoint, both clubs worked like big leaguers and the one bobble charged against visitors was of no account in the run getting for the Tar Heels. Neither club let anything get by that shouldn't have been fielded, while cutting off hits was the order of the play with both.

Rocky Mount . .030 011 00*—5 8 0
Gardenier, Mullen and Hasson; Pope and Ryan. Time of game, 2:00. Umpires, Bussey and Bigbie. Attendance, 3,123.

Pittsburgh, Pa., June 30.—Only one match was played in the National Clay court tennis championship tournament today. A heavy rain had soaked the courts, but late today the sun came out and F. C. Inman and J. C. Castle finished their match. Inman was defeated 6-3, 4-6 and 6-4.

Brooklyn, June 30.—Pfeffer outlasted Marquard today in a pitching duel and Brooklyn won by 7 to 6. Up to the eighth inning the Giants' pitcher had allowed two hits and Pfeffer one and their support was brilliant. In the eighth Marquard weakened. McCarty sent a fly to Burns and the next seven batters hit safely. Among the hits was a home run by Wheat with two on bases. The fusillade netted six runs.

Philadelphia, June 30.—Boston put up a fine up-hill battle here today, but lost to the home team 8 to 5. A drive off Cravath's bat took an ugly bluff and struck Leftfielder Connolly, of Boston, on the jaw. Connolly was rendered unconscious. Cravath got three bases before the ball could be returned to the infield. Evers left the game in the sixth inning because of a lame ankle.

Boston .....000 021 200—5 9 3
Philadelphia .....004 310 00*—8 9 3
Davis and Gowdy; Alexander and Killifer.

Brookline, Mass., June 30.—With half of the 72 holes play of the Massachusetts open golf championship tournament completed M. J. Brady, of Wollaston led the field with a score of 144, two strokes better than his nearest competitor, Walter C. Hagen, former United States open champion. Gilbert Nicholls was third with 149 and J. M. Barnes, of Whitemarsh Valley, fourth with 150.

ANNUAL STATE SHOOT ENDS

Mr. W. L. Hefner, of Hickory, Wins Championship—L. Clayton Grant, Esq., is Runner Up.

Mr. W. L. Hefner, of Hickory, with a score of 98 out of a possible 100, won the championship in the State shoot at Seventeenth and Castle streets on the grounds of the New Hanover Gun Club yesterday afternoon, this being the closing event of the 12th annual North Carolina State Shoot. Mr. J. H. Staples, of Charleston, S. C., made the second highest score with .97. As the contest for the championship was open only to bona fide residents of the State, although residents of other states were not debarred from shooting, L. Clayton Grant, Esq., of this city, who made the next highest score with .94, was the runner up.

The championship meet followed a series of seven events of 20 targets each in which Chipley with a score of 134 was high man.

Daniels was high man for the professionals yesterday, breaking 232 blue rocks out of a possible 240 while Clark came second with 230.

The events were witnessed by a large crowd of interested spectators. The shooting on the whole was considered good and many of the participants showed up in fine form.

While many of the visiting gun sportsmen left for their homes last night, there were several who decided to stay over for a few days to rest and recuperate at the summer resorts here.

The next annual shoot of the North Carolina Gun Association will be held in Tarboro in July of next year.

The score in the State championship event, consisting of one hundred targets, was as follows:

Hefner	98
Staples	97
Grant	94
Pennington	93
Chipley	93
Lanier	93
Barrett, J. H.	92
Boylan	92
Morgan	92
Pierce	91
Simpson	90
Stokley	90
Shelor	89
Sims, W. W.	87
Hyde	85
Sims, G. W.	83
Walls	81
Dreher	75

Stokley and Simpson, each having made 90 in the championship meet, decided to shoot off the tie and it required two events of 20 targets each. In the first round each broke 19 out of 20 and in the second Stokley broke 20 while Simpson only got 18, giving Stokeley a total of 39 out of 40 and Simpson 37.

The score for the seven events of 20 targets each, preceding the championship meet, was as follows:

Chipley	134
Hefner	131
Lanier	131
Grant	130
Pennington	130
Barrett, J. H.	129
Morgan	129
Pierce	128
Staples	127
Hyde	127
Simpson	126
Sims, W. W.	124
Sims, G. W.	123
Boylan	120
Dreher	111
Shelor	105
Walls	101

The total score made by the professionals in all the events, consisting of 240 targets, was as follows:

Daniels	232
Clark	230
Huff	229
Hawkins	226
Goodrich	220
Avery	204
Anderson	201

STATE FARMERS UNION IN DURHAM NEXT FALL

State Council Adopts Important Resolutions

W. A. Blair Re-Commissioned Member State Board of Charities—Club Woman Wanted by Insurance Department.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 30.—The State Council of the North Carolina Farmers' Union, in session here this afternoon, had invitations from Durham, Asheville and Hickory for the next annual meeting and selected Durham after hearing a big delegation from the Bull City. The annual meeting is November 16, 17 and 18.

The council adopted resolutions insisting that there be a readjustment of the cotton tare; urging that the government see to it that the German and Austrian cotton market be kept open to America; urging increased cooperation in marketing and other progressive measures in agricultural matters.

W. A. Blair, of Winston-Salem, is recommissiond as a member of the State Board of Charities, the new term being for six years. Mr. Blair has been for a long while a zealous member of this board, which has to do with the supervision of the general management of the penal and charitable institutions of the State and the various counties.

Secretary E. T. Crews, of the Granville county fair, here today, says that his fair will send to the State fair in October an exhibit that will be composed of the blue ribbon exhibits in the county fair, which is to be held far enough in advance of the State Fair for this to be done. This means that Granville will be among the increasingly large number of counties that will hav extensive representation in the State Fair. Secretary Pogue, of the State Fair, says that the outlook for the fair is exceptionally good.

A commission was issued today for J. Benton Thomas, as first lieutenant of Company C, Second regiment, Raeford. He succeeds Lieutenant Swenpel, resigned.

Supt. I. McK. Goodwin, of the State School for Deaf and Dumb, Morganton, here today on business with the State Departments ,says that there is in progress a general renovation and repairing of the buildings and grounds of the institution and the erection of a new industrial building and this will relieve a serious handicap from which the work of the school has been suffering. He says that the school will open in the fall with an enrollment that will tax the capacity.

Position for Right Woman.

Commissioner of Insurance James R. Young is on the lookout for an active club woman in the State who can be induced to take a position with the Department of Insurance to visit the women's clubs and make talks on fire prevention and co-operate with the clubs in this line of work. A salary and traveling expenses are the compensation. The commissioner has been pushing great campaign with the women's clubs for some time and today wrote to Mrs. Joseph Hyde Pratt, Chapel Hill, chairman of the civics department of the Federation of Women's Clubs of this State; that he is undertaking to make such an adjustment and will in the meantime send Mr. Brockwell or Mr. Gray, of the department, to fill such engagements and will get up at once a folder that will contain data from which any local member of a Woman's club can prepare a creditable paper on the subject.

BOONE MONUMENT UNVEILED AT CUMBERLAND GAP, KY.

Commemorates Entry of Boone and First Party into Kentucky.

Cumberland Gap., Kentucky, June 30.—More than a thousand people, representing North Carolina, Tennesse, Virginia and Kentucky, were present here today at the unveiling of a monument commemorating the entry of Daniel Boone and the first party of pioneers into Kentucky 165 years ago.

Those participating in the unveiling included members of the Daughters of the American Revolution and descendants of Boone and other pioneers who came into the Indian country with him.

Markers have been placed from Cumberland Gap to Harrodsburg in the Blue Grass region of Kentucky, showing the route taken by Boone when he entered this state.

GOOD WEEK FOR COTTON

Least Progress Was Made in the Carolinas on Account Cool Weather.

Washington, June 30.—Another favorable week for cotton growth was reported by the national weather and crop bulletin today.

"Moderately warm weather with showers in many districts where rain was beginning to be needed," said the bulletin, "proved beneficial and the crop is reported to have made excellent progress, except in the more northern localities and over the Carolinas, where the nights were too cool for rapid growth. The weather continued dry over much of Texas, but cotton is not yet suffering and the dry weather has permitted of thorough cultivation. The crop is generally clean in other portions of the belt."

To Ward Off Summer Complexion Ills

To keep the face smooth, white and beautiful all summer, there's nothing quite so good as ordinary mercolized wax. Discolored or freckled skin so common at this season, is gently absorbed by the wax and replaced by the newer, fresher skin beneath. The face exhibits no trace of the wax, which is applied at bedtime and washed off mornings. Greasy creams, powders and rouges, on the other hand, are apt to appear more conspicuous than usual these days of excessive perspiration. Just get an ounce of mercolized wax at any drugstore and use like cold cream. This will help any skin at once and in a week or so the complexion will look remarkably young and healthy.

Sun, winds and flying dust often cause squinting and other contortions which make wrinkles. You can quickly get rid of every line, however caused, by using a harmless wash lotion made by dissolving 1 oz. powdered saxolite in ½ pt. witch hazel.

NEED FUNDS FOR CAMPAIGN

Hon. A. W. McLean, National Representative from North Carolina, Writes to Active Democrats.

Hon. A. W. McLean, of Lumberton, representative from North Carolina of the Democratic National Committee, has addressed a letter to active Democrats throughout the State, asking for contributions to the fund for the maintenance of the permanent headquarters of the National Committee in Washington. Mr. McLean calls attention to the urgent necessity of the Democratic party keeping up an aggressive fight all the time and points out that this will require money.

He calls attention to the fact that there was never a time when the attention of the whole world was so centered upon America, and particularly upon President Wilson, whom the Democratic party has elevated to the position he holds, as at the present date and points out that this fact makes this an opportune season for publicity work in behalf of the party.

Following is a copy of the letter which has been received by representative Democrats in Wilmington:

"My Dear Sir:—You will no doubt recall the decision of the Democratic National Committee, made immediately after the last Presidential election, to maintain permanent headquarters, all the year round, in Washington, for the purpose of carrying on the publicity work. The work done by the National Committee along this line has been of very great benefit to the party, and it has been determined to continue this publicity work, not only during the present year, but during next year, also.

"We realize that to maintain its present position, the Democratic party must put up an aggressive fight all the time. It is not sufficient to prepare for a campaign just before an election. I think you will agree with me that not only regular Democrats, but all fair-minded people, irrespective of former affiliations, have great confidence in the constructive achievements of the present administration, led by our able President. Great good for the country at large is being accomplished, notwithstanding the fact that the difficulties which have to be met are world-wide, and almost overwhelming.

"If we have faith in the wisdom of the present administration, we ought to have courage to fight for Democratic success in 1916. We cannot win without constantly displaying a militant party spirit. The opposition is becoming very active. They hope to take advantage of the present business depression caused by the unprecedented war conditions to persuade as many people as possible into voting against the Democratic party.

"The Republicans are no doubt preparing to wage an elaborate and expensive campaign, and, as evidence of this, they have already created an are now maintaining three separate organizations. Our Democratic National Committee desires to continue its campaign of National education and publicity. Immediate funds are necessary to do this work. Unlike our opponents, we propose to appeal to individual Democrats who conscientiously believe in the principles of the Democratic party, to furnish the campaign funds, instead of relying on the special interests who expect favors in return.

"If you believe the Democratic party deserves to remain in control of this government and that it is to the interests of the American people that Woodrow Wilson should remain President in 'these times which try men's souls', then, we confidently expect you to help us in our efforts to raise sufficient funds to maintain our headquarters and carry on our campaign of education and publicity.

"The National Committee has apportioned the amount necessary to be raised among the various states on the basis of the electoral vote of each state. Last year North Carolina did her part faithfully, although the amount was subscribed by a comparatively small number.

"I earnestly appeal to you to make as large contribution as possible for this great work. Just at the present time the committee is urgently needing a considerable amount. A check for such amount as you feel that you can give will be greatly appreciated. I should also like to have any suggestions that you may be able to make with reference to the work.

"Sincerely yours,

"A. W. McLEAN,

"Representative, Democratic National Committee for North Carolina."

RULES FOR RESERVATIONS.

Railroads Announce New Regulations for Pullman Accommodations.

New rules for reservations of sleeping and parlor car accommodations have been announced by the Atlantic Coast Line and Seaboard Air Line which will be effective on next Sunday. The co-operation of the traveling public in this matter is earnestly requested because of the material and direct benefit to all concerned. Large placards have been posted giving the rules for the information of the public. The new regulations follow:

"On and after Sunday, July 4th, space in sleeping and parlor cars, whether they be Pullman cars or cars owned individually by the carriers, will be reserved only under the following conditions:

"(a) For trains due to leave between 12:01 midnight and 12:00 noon, space will be held until 5 P. M. of the date previous to date of departure.

"(b) For trains due to leave between 12:01 noon and 6 P. M., space will be held until 10 A. M. of the date of departure.

"(c) For trains due to leave between 6:01 P. M. and 12 midnight, space will be held until 5 P. M. of the date of departure.

"This arrangement is made on behalf of the traveling public, and in order to afford more efficient service on the part of the carriers."

TOP O' THE MORNING

When we refuse to teach others the truth God has taught to us, we cease to understand it ourselves.

When we fail to pass on to others the gifts with which God has filled our hands, these gifts fall from our nerveless grasp.

—D. CLAY LILLY.

When a man is down on war let him stay down on it.

Honorable peace sounds good. That is all any nation should want.

The whole world will have something to rejoice over in common when the war in Europe comes to an end.

Some of our opportunities are great, but we are not as great as they are, hence we are not in their class.

When a few own a country, the average man smiles when he is asked to fight for his country when it isn't.

The hatred engendered by war lasts not less than fifty years, and even then it is only mollified by time. People can quit fighting but they hardly ever can quit hating.

We can't do everything at once, but there are some things that we ought to do at once in order to keep from getting left in the lurch.

There is no use of reminding a boy that some day he may be President of the United States so long as it appears to him that he has to be the goat among all the boys at school.

When a lie is started on its rounds the sweep of its effect is so great that wild fire could not overtake it. The wind is the only thing that can equal a lie in spreading itself and keeping on going.

If President Wilson would follow the advice of some of the "big papers," he would be the smallest president America ever had. Of course, he won't pay a bit of attention to some of his newspaper advices.

Are there still people who have an idea that there is such a thing as civilized warfare? We have had an eye on at least twenty wars and not a one of them has had the semblance of civilization about it. So long as the world stands, the word civilized cannot be applied to a relic of barbarism.

Remember your town when you are abroad. Don't forget it when you are away from it. Remember it and say a good word for it. You would not catch a man from Oskosh or Podunk registering from Missouri. If a man cannot say a good word for his town when he goes abroad, he had better stay away from it for good, especially if his town has done more for him than he has ever done for it.

In the New Orleans States there is a picture of two cute little girls rehearsing steps for an open air festival. Here is the headline over the picture: "Seventy-Five Playgrounds Kids Will Frolic Sunday in Old Times Folk Dances." It is owing to what city or what part of the country you are in whether Sunday is frolic day or not. How about the old song, "Every Day Will Be Sunday Bye and Bye".

Peace is a state of mind. Hostility indicates a lack of peace of mind. If everybody had the state of mind of Colonel Bryan, the only disturbance that could possibly take place would have to be among the waiters opening up the best brands of grape juice. Thoughtful consideration; defferential regard, good cigars, and regular old-fashioned smiles would be all there would be to it. How different it would be if a lot of grim, grouchy and growlish men would get together to chew the rag and rush the growler instead of telling each other their troubles like a band of brothers! Ideals are everything. Once get the ideal and all the rest of it would be just like getting ready to go to church.

GREAT BRITAIN HAS TO GIVE US PERMISSION.

Senator Hoke Smith, of Georgia, wants the second American note to Great Britain to be firm, for the reason that the South already has suffered sufficiently by John Bull's interference with American shipments of cotton to neutral countries in Europe. Another cotton marketing season will begin in about 30 to 60 days, commencing in the Southwest about the latter part of July and beginning in the South Atlantic during the latter part of August. The marketing season will soon be on us, and if Great Britain is permitted to arbitrarily interfere with cotton shipments to any and all countries, it will so depress the price as to be again ruinous to the South.

We believe that Great Britain is well within her rights in considering cotton as contraband when shipped to enemy belligerents, for it is used for manufacturing explosives, though not all the cotton shipped is used for war purposes. However, Great Britain pursues an unwarrantably arbitrary course by interfering with American cotton shipments to neutral countries. She not only interferes with American rights but with the rights of neutrals with which we have perfectly legitimate trade.

However, it is not a question of right but a matter of might, and that is what Great Britain has in the tremendous navy with which she proposes to keep on crippling Germany by preventing the neutral countries from sending her either supplies of foodstuffs or cotton. A second note to Great Britain on this question would only emphasize the fact that America demands her rights on the high seas. If Great Britain will not concede what is clearly America's right, we will either have to let it go at that or decide to fight for our rights. We will not do that, for making a bad matter worse would not be a remedy, and certainly war would not settle the question any more than it was settled in 1812-14, only to be practiced in worse form in 1915.

The principle is wrong, however, just as is the sinking of passenger ships with non-combatants, women and children, all of which violations of international law this country can never countenance. However, both are questions for agreement between all the nations, for no two of them can settle them for all. In its present shape it is only a question, liable at any time to constitute a cause of war between hot-headed nations.

The peculiar situation now is that we know that neither Great Britain nor Germany has any hostile intent towards the United States in the kind of warfare which they are waging to save their own national lives, so that, putting in strong and unmistakable terms the protest of the United States is all that the circumstances will warrant.

Meanwhile, we occupy the attitude of having to get permission to carry on commerce, and other neutrals are in the same fix. If it were not such a serious matter it would be amusing to note the condescension and generosity of our old friend John Bull in allowing the Swedish Cotton Spinners Association to import as much as 10,000 bales of cotton a month. This announcement was made in The Star's Washington dispatches in yesterday's paper. Great Britain even assumes to dictate the proviso that the 10,000 bales a month must be consigned to the Swedish Cotton Spinners' Association. Thus war makes a fine cotton trust of that association.

The question, however, ought to be settled at once, since the South's cotton selling season is almost here, and it is due this tremendous interest that the fruit of the labor of 20,000,000 people in the Cotton Belt shall not be affected by the arbitrary action of any nation.

No doubt Great Britain would like to do the best for us she can, but she thinks she would do harm to her cause by trying to be fair with us. That is about the way it stands.

STATE BUREAU OF PUBLICITY

The North Carolina State Bureau of Publicity for the Development of Agriculture and Industry is the name of the State-wide organization formed in Raleigh on Tuesday. This great State organization is the result of agitation originated by Secretary J. C. Forester, of the Greensboro chamber of commerce, and The Star heartily congratulates him upon the success which has thus far crowned his efforts in the direction of getting the State organized in a movement to develop its resources and make known the opportunities and possibilities of this resourceful State.

Mr. Henry A. Page, of Aberdeen, was made president of the Bureau, and preliminary organization was effected by the election of other officers. Later the body will be permanently organized and its purposes will be more fully set forth so as to enlist the co-operation of every county in the State. The purposes and plans of the bureau are comprehensive, and we predict that no organized body will be more potential in bringing about a completer development of the State.

Briefly summarized, the purposes of the organization are declared to be the study of the needs and resources of the State by sections; to secure publicity for resources; to attract thrifty people to the State; to acquaint the people of the State with the advantages of the different sections; to aid in assuring reasonable prices to prospective settlers for homes; to co-operate with local, county, civic organizations, railroads and other organizations in attracting people to the State. The present temporary officers are to serve until the directors organize and elect permanent officers on or before October 1.

It is significant of the great interest in the organization throughout the State that 150 of the leading men from different cities, towns and counties were in attendance. They were enthusiastic in their endorsement and concurrence in the movement, and they will carry its banner back to their respective sections and enlist all constructive citizens in extending the work into every nook and corner of the State.

The organization is more than a bureau of publicity. Its scope is much wider, and it is hoped that it will later adopt a more pretentious name for such a great organization. The name should be briefer and yet comprehensive.

COTTON MILL DIVIDENDS

About a hundred New England and Northern cotton mills declared semi-annual dividends this week, and a New Bedford dispatch states that it reflects the greater success of the mills this year, despite the war in Europe. The dividends were increased over those for the corresponding period last year.

These dividends were paid on capitalization of hundreds of millions of dollars in investment values, and it is pointed out that the figures reveal the fact that the New England mill industry is generally improving.

The whole country seems to be steadily getting back to normal prosperity, and if there are no other eventualities of war to again upset conditions in this country, it is believed that all lines of business are destined to steady improvement in all parts of the country.

CURRENT COMMENT.

A new drink is on the market called the "Wilson-Bryan split." It is said its first effects are to make one try to talk himself to death.—Charlotte News.

Over in Watauga county the people have started a movement that promises to open a field that The Star has often suggested to our citizens, that—is a plan to utilize the waste dairy product to make it a source of profit. They have organized a cheese factory, with the assistance and under the advice of a government expert, and with a practical man in charge of the factory from the cheese district of the west they expect to make a success of the venture. Conditions are so akin in Watauga county to that of Alleghany that there is no reason why we can't do the same thing, and it appears to us that now is a good time to make the venture. Every enterprise of this character that is inaugurated will add that much to our resources and prove a great factor in developing traffic for a railroad when it reaches our borders. Our people will find that it is an easier matter to gradually build up an industrial community than to wait until the necessity arises for the enterprises and then attempt to do the work all at once. Every successful factory that is started will make the work easier for the next one, and if we make a beginning now, we will have some foundation to build upon when our railroad is completed.—Sparta (N. C.) Star.

POSITION OF GERMAN "SOCIALISTS"

Significance of the Manifesto Just Issued by That Party.

(New York Journal of Commerce.)

We have never been able to believe that the great mass of the people throughout the German Empire had been so completely subdued to the militaristic policy of the ruling caste at Berlin as to give it the support which it appeared to have, with any clear understanding of what it was driving at. We cannot believe that a people of so much intelligence can by any autocratic power be so secluded from the influence of modern civilization, and so obsessed with a false idea of their position and of their relation to the rest of the world, as to have their character utterly transformed in a single generation, however strong their inclination may be to hold together and cultivate their own ideals as superior to those of other men. There has never been such an exhibition of the power of a ruling family and its devoted and subservient minions to subdue a nation to its will by organized force; but it cannot be possible so utterly to change human nature and turn the current of the world's tendency to larger freedom and more popular form of government, within a third of a century.

The manifesto issued in the name of the Socialist party in Berlin and published in a newspaper which was promptly suppressed by the Government, gives emphatic evidence of this fact. It is to be remembered that the party in Germany known as the Social Democracy, the most numerous of the political organizations in the Empire, is not merely Socialist in the ordinary sense of the world. It includes various grades of so-called Socialists, but in the main what it has been devoted to is the cause of democratic government, as opposed to that of an autocratic dynasty—what we mean, in the language of Lincoln, by "government of the people, by the people, for the people." It has also been distinctly a party of peace and of friendly relations among all civilized nations. It has been distinctly against the policy so assiduously cultivated by the Kaiser and those with whom and through whom he has worked for 25 years, which inevitably culminated in this terrible war. It has been part of his policy to make the people submissive and subservient to all the purposes of the government, and to obsess them with the idea that it was necessary to their progress and to the safety of the nation. This has been accomplished partly by a rigid control and direction of the influences of education by school and press, and a strict discipline in submission to established authority, and partly by a kind of terrorism of the power exercised by the government.

All this the party of democracy resisted so far as it dared or was able with any hope of escaping suppression; but that it did not wholly escape the obsession which was so constantly cultivated is evidenced by the fact that when this war was brought on by the ruling caste to serve its own ambitious purpose, the Social Democrats were deceived into the idea that it had been forced upon Germany by its enemies and the life of the nation was at stake. They are blind to what seems so plain to us and to most of the world outside of Germany. This is indicated in this very manifesto. It tells how the Socialist party had consistently fought "against the policies of imperial expansion and against the fatal competition in armaments"; how it had "worked unceasingly for a good understanding among nations, for the cause of our common civilization, and for the welfare of mankind"; and how last year its members bent all their energies to preserving peace"; but "to the misfortune of mankind they were unable to avert the catastrophe." They apparently do not yet see why this was so, for the manifesto assumes that the catastrophe was precipitated by Cossacks crossing the border "pillaging and burning," which made it necessary to "put themselves at the service of the Fatherland" for its defense. This shows how completely they were deceived about the responsibility for bringing on the war, but it did not prevent their representatives from working for a peace policy to be put in effect "as soon as guarantees of national safety" could be secured. They seem to have been surprised that efforts of that kind were not seconded by "Social-Democrats" of the belligerent countries.

All this shows how blinded and deluded these Socialists of Germany, as well as the rest of its people, have been as to the causes and the objects of this war, which seem so plain to most neutrals to the conflict, even those most disposed to be friendly to the German people and their nation. There are some signs of an awakening in that part of the manifesto which takes the form of a protest against "a policy of conquests and annexation," against "all efforts looking to annexation of foreign territory and the oppression of other peoples." It recognizes that such efforts are being made and attributes them to "great business organizations and influential political leaders." It declares that "the people want no conquest of land, they want peace"; and says that if the war is not to go on indefinitely until all the nations are completely exhausted "some one of the powers involved must stretch out the hand of peace," and it appeals to Germany to take the first steps. "In the name of humanity and civilization," it urges the government to try to end the struggle and calls upon Socialists in the other belligerent countries to make the same demand upon their governments.

The great significance of all this lies in the fact that these Social-Democrats do not recognize even now the truth about the responsibility of the policy which they condemn for actually bringing on this war and prosecuting it for the very objects which they also condemn. They apparently accept the pretense so assiduously cultivated that it was forced upon Germany by its enemies. They are awakening to the fact that it may be directed to conquest and domination, but cannot believe that it was precipitated deliberately for that purpose and had been prepared for with that in view. Therein they evidently represent the great mass of the German people who, they say, want peace and friendly relations with other countries. From this state of uneasy dreaming they are liable to awake to the daylight of truth. Then it may be possible to have a peace brought about which will be as much for the benefit of the German people as of the rest of the world, but it must be the death of that century-old Prussian militarism and oppression.

MORE PROOF.

Figures for 1914 Again Prove Efficacy of Vaccine in Army.

(State Board of Health.)

A letter just received by the State Board of Health from the office of the Surgeon General of the War Department at Washington makes known the latest facts and figures concerning the use of anti-typhoid vaccine in the army for the year 1914. The letter says: "There were seven cases of typhoid fever last year, 1914, with three deaths, none of whom had received the complete immunization against typhoid." Further information or the complete statistics for the last year, the General states, are not yet available for publication.

The record for 1913 is other proof positive for the success of anti-typhoid vaccine as a preventive of typhoid fever. "For the calendar year, 1913," he writes, "three cases of typhoid fever (officers and enlisted men) occurred in the army stationed within the geographical limits of the United States. Two of these cases were in recently enlisted recruits, who were admitted to the hospital on the fourth and sixth days of service. The latter case had not received the first dose of the typhoid prophylactic when admitted to the hospital. In both cases the disease was obviously contracted prior to enlistment. In the third case the prophylactic was employed for more than a year previous to the attack, but the soldier stated that he had received only one injection. All the patients recovered."

For a number of years the army has furnished the most reliable figures to be had concerning the use of this typhoid preventive. In fact, it has given us about the only authoritative we have, as it was in the army the treatment was made compulsory and accurate records were kept. Each year has furnished the same convincing story, that anti-typhoid vaccine, when administered properly in three separate doses, is efficient as a preventive of typhoid fever.

It is to be noted that only the unvaccinated men and officers of the army had typhoid during the year 1913, 1913 and 1914. It is further to be noted that accurate observations recorded in hundreds of thousands of cases leave no doubt as to the preventive powers of anti-typhoid vaccination in all but a relative insignificant few, and in these it strikingly decreases the morbidity and the mortality.

TAX ASSESSMENTS WILL SOON BE READY

President Hall Appoints Committee From Chamber.

Listing of Property Closed Last Night —Many Delinquents Reported —Assessors For Wilmington Are Still Busy.

The books for the listing of property for taxes closed last night and the listers will now get their reports ready for the computing of taxes. The assessors outside of Wilmington have practically completed the assessing of property but it is expected that it will be a week or longer before the city assessors will have finished. The equalization of assessments for property in the city and county will then be taken up and it is hardly expected that this will be completed before September it.

Mr. C. W. Worth, county tax assessor, said last night that while the assessors in the county have gone over all property in their respective divisions they had not yet made up their lists and it was, therefore, impossible for him to state whether or not there had been a general increase.

It is known, however, that the contemplated assessments of property in the city are much larger than those of previous years. When this fact became generally known several weeks ago it created much discussion among property owners, especially those in the downtown section, and resulted in a special meeting of the Chamber of Commerce for the purpose of going into the matter.

A resolution was adopted at that meeting authorizing President L. E. Hall, of the Chamber, to appoint a committee of five to co-operate with the County Commissioners and to go into the matter with the county assessors for the purpose of looking into the question of assessmen" of property for taxation, and the committee was further authorized to investigate the tax rate of the State, county and city.

President Hall has had the matter under consideration since the meeting and yesterday afternoon announced the personnel of the committee which is as follows: Messrs. H. C. McQueen, chairman, M. J. Corbett, Thomas W. Davis, William Gilchrist and J. H. Hinton.

It was stated yesterday that there are quite a number of people who have failed to list their property, as required by law. The first duty of the listers will be to make out a list of these delinquents and report them to the county board of commissioners. Section 82 of the revenue and machinery act of the last Legislature makes it mandatory with the County Commissioners to report to the grand jury those who fail to list their property for taxes. The matter is not left optional or discretionary but is obligatory. However, it seems to be the general opinion that delinquents will be given an opportunity to pay the extra cost of listing their property before the cases go to court.

The Board of County Commissioners in New Hanover will begin its sittings as a Board of Equalizaton on Monday, July 5, and will likely take up the assessments of county property first, as the reports of the county assessors will probably be ready before those of the city. From present indications it hardly seems likely that the city assessors will be able to have ther reports ready at that time.

A strenuous effort is being made to arrive at equitable values and this necessarily is a difficult task. Already many vgorous kicks have been registered. There is a disposition, however, on the part of both the assessors and of the property owners to recognize this principle as correct and proper and an honest effort will be made to give every man a square deal. The Board of Commissioners are also anxious to secure an equitable value for the property of every man.

With the increased assessments of property, it has been hoped to lower the tax rate for Wilmington, and this is one of the things that the committee from the Chamber of Commerce will take up. It has been pointed out that it is hardly fair to increase the values of property without a corresponding decrease in the tax rate, especially n view of the fact that the present rate is considered to be a high one. Indeed many of the property owners feel that they already have an undue proportion of the taxes to pay and that if their assessments are increased without securing relief in the tax rate that their taxes would become a big burden at a time when money is not easily secured.

COUNCIL AUTHORIZES LOAN

Special Meeting Held Yesterday Afternoon—Several Routine Matters.

City Council at the special meeting yesterday passed the resolution to borrow $50,000, as the part of the $100,000 loan to have been borrowed about ten days ago. This makes a total of $150,000 within the past few weeks. The loan was arranged through the American National Bank at the low rate of 3 per cent. interest, and is to come from a New York trust company.

The matter of installing an additional pump at the sewerage disposal plant was refered to Councilman Jones, who will make some investigations before entering into negotiations for a purchase.

It was ordered that the Hilton Lumberton Company get a refund of taxes for a period they had been taxed and during a time they had not been running.

The matter of resurfacing Grace street from Fourth to Fifth was referred to Councilman Bradshaw.

Council made another attempt to get Col. C. H. White to withdraw his resignation as tax collector and offered him a vacation, but the colonel insists on his resignation ,explaining that his health requires it.

Funeral Yesterday.

The body of Mr. Thomas A. Blackburn arrived from Asheville yesterday about noon and funeral services were conducted at Immanuel Presbyterian church by Rev. J. S. Crowley, the pastor. The remains were laid to rest by tender and affectionate hands in Bellevue cemetery. Pall-bearers were Messrs. Thomas Brown, Edward Register, C. T. McKeithan and J. J. Vereen.

Interest quarter begins at the AMERICAN NATIONAL BANK today. 4 per cent will be paid on October 1st on deposits made in their Savings Department on July 1st or those made July 2nd. (advertisement.)

TO DREDGE RIVER AT HILTON

Mr. W. B. Cooper Secures Government Boat, Henry J. Bacon—Will Facilitate Loading Cotton.

Senator W. B. Cooper has made arrangements with the local office of the United States Engineering Corps to employ the dredge Henry J. Bacon, which is the largest dredge in this district, for the purpose of dredging the Cape Fear at Hilton, where his cotton warehouses are located.

The river at this point is about ten feed deep near the edge of the platform from which cotton will be loaded, sloping to the middle, where it is about 25 feet deep, or deep enough for the big ocean-going vessels on which Mr. Cooper expects to ship cotton. The front of the warehouse is 700 feet in length. Leaving a great amount of dredging before the big boats can pull alongside the warehouse platform.

Heretofore, Mr. Cooper has had to load his cotton on flats and lighter them out to the deep water where the sea-going vessels were anchored for loading. This made an extra expense and loss of time in getting the cotton ready to be shipped.

No pains will be spared to get everything exactly right in the new improvements, and when completed, two or three large ocean going vessels can be brought alongside the loading platform at one time. At thousand bales can be loaded in a day. If it proves a good crop year and shipping conditions are not too hazardous on the European side, it is likely that this project will mean the distribution of a considerable sum of money.

The dredging is quite a large task. It will likely begin some time this month, as soon as the dredge can be available for the work.

PARCEL POST REGULATIONS

Interesting Extract From Law Bearing on Mailing and Delivery.

Postmaster H. McL. Green has given out for publication the following extract from the postal laws:

"All incoming parcels addressed Wilmington will be delivered anywhere within the delivery limits, either by foot carried or by automobile delivery carrier. All incomng parcels addressed to Wrightsville Beach will be delivered except those too large or too heavy for delivery by foot carrier. Undeliverable beach packages will have to be called for at the office of the carrier, Seashore Hotel.

"Carriers are not permitted to accept for mailing packages weighing more than four ounces. All packages weighing in excess of four ounces must be mailed at the postoffice or postal station."

THINKS IDEA SPLENDID ONE

Mr. Hugh MacRae Believes That North Carolina Publicity Bureau Has Big Possibilities.

Mr. Hugh MacRae, who took a prominent part in the organization of the North Carolina Publicity Bureau at Raleigh Tuesday, returned to the city yesterday. He expressed himself as highly pleased with what was done and declared that the idea of giving wider publicity to the resources of the State, particularly those along agricultural lines, is a splendid one.

"Of course, there must be something more than an idea," he said when asked as to his impressions of the meeting, "but with such men as Henry Page, who has done so much for the Sandhill country; Clarence Poe, whose work is too well known to need comment; R. C. Hood, who has been instrumental in doing so much for Greensboro and who by the way may almost be said to be a Wilmingtonian because of his interests in this section, and Bion H. Butler, who has made himself thoroughly acquainted with the entire State—with such men as these behind the movement—it should mean great things to the State.

Mr. MacRae pointed out that the organization is just what its name implies and no more. It is not a State Chamber of Commerce nor a boosting organization but a means of interesting people by letting them know what is in North Carolina. While it will have an office centrally located, through which this information will be disseminated, in charge of a competent man, it will not be sectional.

Each section of the State will furnish information concerning what it has to offer and this will enable the secretary to keep in close touch with the entire State. Prof. E. C. Branson, of Chapel Hill, who was elected vice president, has already worked out the plan at the State University through his county clubs in which students get together information about their respective counties and then meet for discussion.

Recognizing the fact that agricultural development is fundamental and that industries and commercial enterprises naturally follow in the wake of agricultural progress, the organization will deal primarily with the development of this line of endeavor.

Mr. MacRae and his associates have already put into operation plans for development for this section which will furnish an excellent guide for the new organization. In this section are great agricultural possibilities, yet undeveloped, and it is only possible to develop them through securng the right kind of people. For the last ten years or more Mr. MacRae has been working to get the right kind of people here. He is succeeding and is setting an example that can be followed with profit in other sections.

While Mr. MacRae did not say so, from the reports of the meeting it is clearly evident that practically the same kind of campaign for development which he has been carrying on in New Hanover county is to be extended to the entire State, if the new movement succeeds, and as he pointed out the right kind of men are behind it to make it go and it seems to be assured of success.

Married at Pastor's Home.

Mr. Isaac Padrick and Miss Annie Garrett were married last night at 9 o'clock at the residence of their pastor, Rev. J. S. Crowley, No. 508 South Third street, the minister officiating. Both the bride and groom are residents of Wilmington and have a host of friends who wish them the most of happiness.

THE C. W. YATES COMPANY

Recently Chartered by Secretary of State, Begins Business July 1 —Election of Officers.

The C. W. Yates Company, recently chartered by the Secretary of State with an authorized capital stock of $125,000 will begin business today, July 1, succeeding the firm of C. W. Yates & Co., No. 117 Market street, possibly the oldest and certainly the largest book and stationery business in North Carolina.

The company yesterday organized by the election of the following officers:

President—Mr. DeWitt C. Love.
Vice President—Mr. Joseph W. Yates.
Secretary—Mr. Charles W. Yates.
Treasurer—Mr. P. L. Knight.

These are among the leading incorporators of the new company which will continue business at the same stand, where for 40 years it has carried on the general book and stationery business with signal success. The business was founded in 1875 by the late Mr. C. W. Yates and by Mr. DeWitt C. Love, who now becomes the president of the organization. Both the Messrs. Yates are young business men of high character and standing in the community, Mr. Charles W. Yates having been with the firm since the completion of his education. Mr. Love is too well known in the community to need introduction as a successful and progressive business man, whose efforts towards enlargement and progress of the business of C. W. Yates & Co., under the new management will be ably seconded by the infusion of the "new blood," so to speak.

Mr. P. L. Knight, who becomes treasurer of the incorporation, formerly resided here, but for the past several years has been chief clerk in the office of Mr. W. B. Darrow, superintendent of transportation of the Atlantic Coast Line, with headquarters in Rocky Mount, N. C., giving up that lucrative position and removing to Wilmington to engage in this larger sphere of business activity. It will be a pleasure to his many friends as well as those of Mrs. Knight to know that with their little daughter they have already arrived in Wilmington, and will make their home with Mrs. Knight's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Love, at their pretty home on South Front street. Mr. Knight is a young business man of recognized ability and his addition to the forces at "Yates'," as the store is so well known, will be a valuable one to the business.

Beginning today the business will be conducted in the name of C. W. Yates Company and there can be no doubt that it will continue to occupy that prominent place in the business life of the city which it has always occupied.

WILL CARE FOR TEN BABIES

Bear Annex Opens Today With Private Corps of Nurses—Four Beds Needed—May Increase.

Ten babies can now be cared for in the Bear Annex to the James Walker Memorial Hospital. A private corps of nurses have been secured and the institution will be run separately from the hospital. Beginning today as the official opening, all local physicians will have the privilege of taking babies there for treatment.

Everything is in readiness for taking infants and serving the community well, except there is a need of four single beds. The committee would be glad to have a donation of these beds with springs and mattresses, but if no one desires to furnish them, arrangements will have to be made today to buy them.

The Bear Annex has been secured for three months only, but it is hoped that after this time is out, arrangements can be made for a permanent building for the institution, or that something permanent can be arranged for it. It is also hoped that the capacity of the institution can soon be increased. If a building is erected for the institution, it will be made large enough to care for a great many babies at a time.

Any one desiring to furnish any, or all of these four needed beds, are requested to 'phone Mrs. C. L. Pridgen, No. 2085. It will be necessary to call early today to be of help to the institution as Mrs. Pridgen will make arrangements to have them bought if no donations come in before this evening.

A WILMINGTON BOY

Consul at Bristol Formerly Resided Here—Armenian Case.

Aside from the nation-wide interest and anxiety that will be created this morning by the news carried in the Associated Press dispatches of the British steamer Armenian with the loss of nearly a score of American lives, there will be peculiar interest in the dispatches for Wilmington people from the fact that the American consul at Bristol, from whom all the facts are gathered, is none other than Mr. John S. Armstrong, Jr., formerly of this city, and a son, of Mr. John S. Armstrong, the well known Wilmington banker for many years, now a capitalist of Baltimore, Md.

The younger Mr. Armstrong is named for his father and was given the post at Bristol, Eng., early in the Wilson administration. That he is well performing the duties of his official post in this crisis, is indicated by the thorough way in which he has apparently gone at the investigaton and, n the fullness of fact which is immediately available by this government, as the result of his effort.

CUAGHT WITH THE GOODS.

Will Canady, Colored, Taken in by Police—Former Vinegar Vender.

Claiming that officials had taken his grip from him, in which he was bringing liquor from Norfolk, and left him to bring his clothes in his arms, Will Canady was arrested on the Castle Haynes road yesterday by Policeman Thompson, who overtook him on a motorcycle. The negro had several suits of clothes tied up in a rain coat and was trying to sell them at suspiciously low cost.

A call came to the police station about the same time the negro was detected carrying the clothes that Paul's Dye Works had been robbed of several suits of clothes, corresponding to those carried by the negro. Canady is in the police lock-up awaiting trial before Recorder Empie. It will be remembered that this is the same negro who had been selling vinegar at $2 a quart to the boys, for liquor. The police thought it rather funny that Canady would go all the way to Norfolk to get liquor when he could get $2 for a quart of vinegar.

RAID DUPLIN DISTILLERIES

Nine Men Captured and 1,900 Gallons of Beer Destroyed by Officer Kennedy and Assistants.

Deputy United States Marshal J. R. Kennedy returned to the city yesterday morning from Duplin county where, with the assistance of local officers, he succeeded in destroying three large whiskey distilleries, about 30 miles northeast of Warsaw, and capturing nine of the operators and others alleged to have been interested in the distilleries, all of whom were landed in jail at Clinton, Sampson county, to await trial at the next term of Federal Court in this city.

The arrest of the main operator of the largest distillery, 120 gallons capacity, was not until after he had engaged Deputy Kennedy in a running fight in which the distiller used a repeating Winchester and the officer used a trusty Smith & Wesson of large calibre. After exchanging a dozen or more shots through an old field growth of pines, which afforded excellent defensive tactics, the distiller, who gave the name of plain "John Smith," was at length corraled after a hand-to-hand engagement in which the minion of the law was successful.

The other distilleries captured, all in the same vicinity and 30 miles from a railroad, were of 75 and 40 gallon capacity, respectively, and with these stills the raiding party destroyed 1,900 gallons of beer, some of the finished product, low wines, a quantity of malt, meal, etc. The raid was in Glisson township and the forests were quite wooden, making the progress of the officers very difficult. Deputy Kennedy's field uniform, consisting largely of overalls, a slouch hat and other garments of the negligee order, were much tattered and torn when he reached the city as the result of his manuevers all day and all the night previously.

The raids were made Tuesday in broad daylight, the stills having been located with the men in full charge and in full operation. Until their plans were laid for action the officers gave the moonshiners to understand that they were merely timber inspectors. After making the necessary locations and securing the evidence of actual operation, the officers then moved rapidly and there was some excitement for the time being.

MOVEMENT OF TRUCK IS ABOUT COMPLETED

Cantaloupes Will Begin to Move to Northern Markets Next Week.

The shipment of cucumbers from this section will be practically over after this week. Some eight or ten cars of cukes and beans will be shipped from New Hanover this week. The total movement of these two products from this county will amount this year to about one hundred cars. The bean shipments have been light for several weeks. A few peppers are being shipped.

On account of low prices for potatoes many of the growers have stored them and it is estimated that only about half the crop which was quite large this year has been shipped so far. When the prices are better there will be other shipments to Northern markets.

Cantaloupes will begin moving next week from South Carolina and also from the vicinity of Fayetteville. Reports indicate that the crop will be fully up to that of last year and will be of good quality.

Small shipments have already gone forward from points in South Carolina.

Shipments of garden corn from points along the Wilmington and Weldon railroad, notably Faison and Clinton, have been quite large. It is estimated that more than one hundred cars have been shipped. This movement will reach an end this week.

On the whole truckers have fared as well or better this year than they anticipated. The weather conditions for the last few weeks have been altogether favorable.

OAK RIDGE INSTITUTE

Although Both Founders Have Died School Will Continue.

Elsewhere in today's Star appears the advertisement of Oak Ridge Institute. A little more than a year ago the administration buildings of that school were destroyed by fire, but during the past year they have been replaced by a very handsome, well-arranged, commodious building, known as the alumni building, and today the school is better equipped than ever before.

The founders of the school, Profs. J. A. Holt and M. H. Holt, died during the past year. For nearly two years, because of ill health, they had been only nominally connected with the school. Prof. E. P. Holt ,an excellent teacher and strong man,, son of Prof. J. Allen Holt, together with Prof. T. E. Whitaker, who has been at Oak Ridge Institute 21 years, will have the management of the school, as they have had for the last year and a half or two years. They have associated with them an able corps of teachers, and every effort will be made, not only to maintain the school's high standard, but to still further develop it.

SHOW LICENSE BADGES

Several in Recorder's Court Yesterday —Cases Dismissed.

Several cases came before Recorder Empie yesterday in which the defendants were charged with violating the dog tax ordinance. The cases were dismissed because the men showed their badges, also F. L. W. King, arrested for operating auto without license, showed his license. The men tried on charges of violating dog tax ordinance were: Gumby Galloway, colored, alias Temple Gilmore; John King, colored; Sarah Andrews, colored; James Harris, colored; Capt. W. H. Jones, white; Mr. W. B. Moore, Martha Williams, colored.

Messrs. C. C. Hopper and Buddie McDonald were brought up for operating automobiles without license and taxed with costs. Fannie Toomer, colored, was tried for larceny and found not guilty.

The Morgan Millrock Company has brought suit against the Builders' Supply Company on account.

N. C. BAR ASSOCIATION.

Meets in Asheville Early in August. Programme.

T. W. Davis, Esq., of this city, who is secretary of the North Carolina Bar Association, which will hold its annual meeting in Asheville early in August, has about completed arrangements for the convention. A brilliant affair is being planned. Among the distinguished men who will address the meeting will be Senator Ham Lewis, of Illinois, Dr. W. R. Vane, of Washington and Lee University, and Attorney DeLancy Nicoll, of New York City. Several distinguished North Carolinians will also make speeches. The association now has more than 600 members and a large attendance is expected. The headquarters will be in the Battery Park Hotel.

Interest quarter begins at the AMERICAN NATIONAL BANK today. 4 per cent will be paid on October 1st on deposits made in their Savings Department on July 1st or those made July 2nd. (advertisement.)

STARTS ANNUAL TOUR.

Oxford Orphanage Singing Class Visiting N. C. Towns and Cities.

The different Masonic lodges, under whose auspices the Oxford Orphanage Singing Class gives entertainments over the State, have begun making arrangements for the reception of the children who have started on a tour of the State.

The orphanage represented by these children supplements its income to the extent that 100 more children can be kept on the funds received from supporters than could otherwise be provided for. Besides this visit gives the people an opportunity of seeing the children and knowing how they are being cared for, and helps in the maintenance of the institution.

BATTLEGROUND MEETING

Meeting of Association This Morning to Arrange Celebration.

The Moore's Creek Battleground Association will hold its annual meeting this morning at 10 o'clock on the battleground for the purpose of naming the date for the annual celebration, and to make the detailed arrangements for the affair this year. They have other small business matters, but will grant concessions today for refreshment stands and other accompaniments of the celebration. Mr. George J. Moore is president of the association and Mr. C. D. Murphy is secretary.

Safety+Quickness

"Safety First" must ever be the watchword in firearms. But safety must not be secured at the expense of quick action. The Colt Automatic Pistol combines the most dependable kind of safety—automatic safety—with instant firing.

The Colt can't be discharged accidentally, because the trigger must be pulled and the safety in the grip must be pressed in at the same instant and this can't be done except it is done purposely. So much for safety.

As for quickness, the Colt always gets there first, for in an emergency you don't have to bother with or think about the grip safety—it takes care of itself and you.

JOHNSON-LODOR NUPTIALS CELEBRATED YESTERDAY

Attractive in its simplicity was the wedding which took place yesterday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. W. A. Johnson, No. 110 South Sixth street, when Miss Rebecca Love Johnson became the bride of Mr. Samuel Henderson Lodor, of this city.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure, pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, in the presence of members of the family and a few very intimate friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Lodor left on the 6:45 train for a short trip to Western North Carolina, and upon their return they will be at home, No. 110 South Seventh street.

WILMINGTON MAN WILL WED OXFORD GIRL

Cards have been received in the city reading as follows: "Mr. and Mrs. Z. W. Mitchell announce the engagement of their daughter, Ruth, to Mr. James William Harriss, of Wilmington, N. C., the marriage to take place in September." The bride is an accomplished and attractive young lady of Oxford who made many friends while a student in Peace Institute at Raleigh and was several years the popular sponsor of Company B., of Horner Military School. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. George Harriss, of this city, and is very popular in social circles. He holds a position in the office of the general superintendent of transportation of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company.

MISS JENNIE CHILD BRIDE OF MR. THOMAS L. VINES

At the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Margaret Child, No. 517 South Second street, Miss Jennie Child and Mr. Thomas L. Vines were married last evening at 8:30 o'clock, the ceremony being performed by Rev. W. Marshall Craig, acting pastor of the First Baptist church. Owing to a recent death in the family of the groom were only the members of the immediate family and intimate friends present.

The parlor was tastefully decorated for the occasion with cut flowers and potted plants.

Mrs. Vines has many friends in the city and Mr. Vines is well known in Wilmington, having a position with the government as Deputy Collector of Customs. They will be at home to their friends at No. 520 South Second street.

SIMMONS-LASSITER WEDDING IN WASHINGTON, D. C., YESTERDAY

Washington, D. C., June 30.—A most beautiful wedding was solemnized at the Church of the Epiphany at high noon today when Miss Katherine Leigh Lassiter, only daughter of Robert W. Lassiter, of Oxford, was married to Mr. Berkley Lee Simmons, of Washington.

The ceremony was performed by Dr. Van Winder Shields, of Jacksonville, Fla., who married the bride's parents many years ago. Mrs. R. G. Lassiter, of Oxford, was maid of honor; Miss Josephine Brown, of Oxford; Mrs. Richard Beer, of Washington, and Miss A. Shields, of Jacksonville, were maids of honor.

The couple left for an automobile trip to the coast of Maine. They will be at home in Washington after Aug. 1.

Ben F. Lassiter and Robert G. Lassiter, of Oxford, and Joe D. Lassiter, of Wilmington, brothers of the bride, were among the out-of-town people to attend.

INTERESTING TEMPERANCE LECTURE LAST NIGHT

Mrs. Adelaide Goodno made an especially interesting talk to the public last night at Fifth Street Methodist church on the subject of temperance. She told of the magnitude of the work and its progress in North Carolina, and about the 40 different branches in the State. A very interesting part of the lecture was an array of statistics on the posterity of abstainers and moderate drinkers. She said that where both parents use alcohol one child in five is insane, one in three epileptic, one out of seven is deformed and only one out of six is normal. Where both parents are total abstainers, nine out of every ten are normal. A large and enthusiastic audience heard the lecture. Mrs. Goodno leaves this evening for Jacksonville, N. C., on her regular itinerary over the State.

POPULAR YOUNG PEOPLE WEDDED LAST EVENING

Last evening at 9:30 o'clock a quiet but impressive wedding was solemnized at the parsonage of Southside Baptist church, which joined two of Wilmington's popular young people in matrimony, Miss Valvie Hope Wagoner becoming the bride of Mr. Rozelle S. Brown. The ceremony was witnessed only by the immediate families of the couple, and Rev. W. G. Hall, pastor of Southside Baptist church, very impressively pronounced the ceremony which made them man and wife.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Wagoner, who, while originally from Deboise City, Pa., have lived in Wilmington for several years. Miss Wagoner enjoys the acquaintance of a wide circle of friends which she has made during her residence in Wilmington, to all of whom the happy event of last evening will come as a pleasant surprise, as only the immediate families and a few intimate friends had been let into the secret. The groom, a popular Wilmington young man, has been a valued employe of the Bijou theatre for the past two years and his many friends will heartily congratulate him.

PRETTY MARRIAGE TOOK PLACE LAST EVENING.

A quiet, yet pretty marriage took place yesterday when Miss Willie Southerland, daughter of Mrs. M. J. Southerland, of No. 518 South Second street, became the bride of Mr. Andrews Wright, of Wilmington, but formerly of Brunswick, Ga., Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure, pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, performing the ceremony. Mendelssohn's Wedding March was played by Miss Willie Thigpen.

The popular young couple, who were the recipients of many presents, left on the 3:40 train for a trip South. They will stop in Atlanta and St. Augustine, Fla., and will visit several other cities and resorts.

The groom has prominent family connections in South Georgia and is widely known. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mrs. M. J. Southerland and is attractive and accomplished. She looked beautiful in her imported traveling suit of gray. She is a niece of W. D. Turrentine, of Durham, and many other of the oldest and best families of Durham and Alamance county are numbered among her relatives.

The out-of-town guests were Mrs. L. P. Sneeden, of Princeton, W. Va., and Miss Bettie Peel, of Durham.

WRIGHTSVILLE BEACH

Hon. Thomas McFarland and family, of Nashville, Tenn., are expected at the Oceanic Hotel in the next few days.

Vesper services will be conducted by the young ladies of the Y. W. C. A. at the chapel on the beach Sunday afternoon at 6 o'clock.

Oceanic arrivals yesterday include Mr. D. D. Monahan, of Baltimore, Md.; and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Burton, of Atlanta, Ga.

Seashore Hotel arrivals yesterday included Mr. E. B. Foss, of Pikeville; F. E. Moreng, of St. Louis, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl S. Jackson, of Atlanta.

The children's souvenir dance at Lumina tomorrow night will be an event of much interest to old and young. The children will be given the use of the floor from 8 to 9 o'clock and then the regular dancing will follow. Dainty souvenirs will be given.

The confetti dance at Lumina last evening was thoroughly enjoyed by the large crowds at the pavilion. While the dancers were on the floor the streamers of paper confetti were thrown from the balconies and this made a pretty spectacle and was interesting not only to the dancers but also to the audience.

"The Portrait Painter," a three-reel Lubin photo drama, will be shown at Lumina. It is a thrilling story and one that will hold the close attention of the audience to the end. It gives the experience of Alan Baird, a famous portrait painter, and of Laura Carew, an actress, whose picture he paints.

The latest arrivals at the Seashore hotel are Mrs. Charles A. Forrest, of Atlanta; Jean Doughty, Mrs. D. M. Lyon, Mrs. M. Addison, C. H. Fenns and J. Barrett, Augusta; J. T. Griffith and Odom Alexander, Charlotte; C. B. Shaffer, Baltimore; L. C. Greenber, Knoxville, Tenn., and N. Abdelvocer, New York City.

The latest arrivals at the Oceanic hotel are Messrs. C. B. Biltmore, of Baltimore; J. D. Burshall and A. D. McLean, Washington, D. C.; C. E. Houston, Chattanooga, Tenn.; C. A. Hudgins, Jacksonville, Fla.; R. B. Emerson, Atlanta; Frank L. Simmons, Topeka, Kas.; R. L. Golden, Augusta, Ga.; C. L. Treadwell, Baltimore; Paul Valser, Charlotte.

Yesterday's Fayetteville Observer: "Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Walker and Miss Irene Walker, Mr. and Mrs. H. McD. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Colvin, Jr., and little son, John Albert, have returned from Wrightsville Beach."

Dr. E. L. Edwards, who was bruised at the steel pier at the Seashore Hotel while in the surf several days ago and who had been at the James Walker Memorial Hospital since that time, returned yesterday and registered at the Hanover Inn to spend the rest of the summer. Other guests at the Inn are Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Dick, Mrs. J. H. Wise and J. B. Rice, of this city, who have gone down this week to spend the rest of the summer.

Yesterday's Charlotte Observer: "Mrs. R. L. Gibbon and daughter, Misses Corinne, Mary Rogers, Louise and Alice Battle Gibbon will leave Friday for Wrightsville Beach to spend 10 days or more.——Miss Helen Mallory, accompanied by her nephew, Master James H. VanNess, 3rd, will leave Friday for Wrightsville Beach to spend several weeks.——Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Carson will leave Friday for Wrightsville Beach to spend several weeks. Mr. James Carson will leave at the same time to attend a house party given by Mr. William Sprunt, Jr., of Wilmington at Wrightsville.——Mrs. John Walter Miller, of New York, who has been spending several weeks here visiting her niece, Mrs. Charles C. Hook, at her home on East Morehead street, will leave for Wrightsville Beach Friday morning accompanied by her niece, Miss Margaret Cowles. They will spend two weeks at the coast."

All the reservations for the coming week-end at Cooleemee, the Y. W. C. A. cottage at the beach, have been taken by young ladies from Wilmington and a number of requests from girls outside the city have had to be turned down. The registration for July, August and September have been quite large and the indications now are that the cottage will have all the guests it can care for the remainder of the summer. Boating, fishing, crabbing and swimming will be the principal recreation features this week. Swimming lessons will be given Saturday and Monday afternoon. Monday night a camp fire supper will be given at the beach and the Swastika group of Camp Fire girls will have a ceremonial meeting. This camp is planning an encampment for the following week and for the purpose of securing funds will give an entertainment at the Marion Sprunt playground on next Thursday night.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

WILMINGTON GIRL IN RICHMOND LAWN FETE.

Little Miss Muriel Einstein, daughter of Mrs. Edward Einstein, of Wilmington, who is shown in the center of a large rose in this photograph, together with the daughter of Mrs. Charles Millhiser, of Ginter Park, Richmond, Va., who is a sister of Mrs. Einstein, was one of the notably pretty entries in the Ginter Park lawn fete in that city last week. This is an annual event in Richmond and is always attended by many prominent society people. Mrs. Einstein is visiting her sister, Mrs. Millhiser.

GETTING ALL READY FOR THE ENCAMPMENT

Of National Guard Regiments at Camp Glenn

Commissioner Graham, Returning from Tour of Inspection, Reports Fine Crops of Grain in Western Part of North Carolina

(Special Star Correspondence)

Raleigh, N. C., June 30.—North Carolina National Guard headquarters here is the scene of the most strenuous sort of effort these days in the preliminary arrangements for the encampments of the regiments of the Guard to be in progress during July and the early days of August. The second regiment will be the first to go into camp, July 6-13 being the dates assigned. Then there follows the encampment for the First regiment July 20-28, to be followed August 2-10 by the Third regiment.

Each of the regiments will have a detachment of the sanitary troops with them. In addition to these encampments at Camp Glenn, Morehead, there will be the special training encampments of the Field Hospital Corps, Asheville, and the Ambulance corps, Canton, at TobyHanna, Pa., July 3-13 and the encampment of the Cavalry troops of Asheville and Rutherfordton at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., July 20-29.

Major W. A. Graham, Commissioner of Agriculture, has just returned from an inspection visitation to the State experiment farms in Iredell, Buncombe and Transylvania counties and, besides pronouncing the work at the several State farms most satisfactory to himself and the official party that accompanied him, he declares that he found crop conditions generally everywhere he went most gratifying. The wheat and the rye crops are very fine, he says, and the oat crop is decidedly the biggest and best that the State has ever harvested. Major Graham and party had opportunity to observe conditions in a wide scope of country, having traveled over both the Southern and the Seaboard lines on the trip. Messrs. A. Cannon, C. C. Wright, of the State Board of Agriculture, R. W. Collett, assistant director of test farms ,and State Agricultural Chemist B. W. Kilgore were members of Major Graham's party.

Announcement is made that Bascom Feild, Greensboro, has been awarded the $50 cash prize for the best paper on "Bituminous Macadam Roads Built by Penetration Method". Mr. Collier Cobb, Jr., submitted a paper that was a close second in the contest, which was confined to students of the University of North Carolina. Mr. Feild was a member of the recent University graduating class.

DR. PRATT MAKES A MOST GRATIFYING REPORT OF WORK

Rejoices Fruition of Efforts of Geological Board.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 30.—The State Board of Geological Survey, in semi-annual session here, received the report from State Geologist Joseph Hyde Pratt on the work of the board under his direction for the past six months that was most gratifying. First of all, he recited the fact that the past six months saw the realization of legislation for which the board has been working for a number of years, notably the acts as to a State fisheries commission, is a highway commission, forestry conservation act, the forest area purchase act and the Arbor Day act.

Dr. Pratt reported that in the matter of forestry conservation through repression of forest fires, he has concluded an arrangement with the Federal forestry division through which there will be co-operation and the State will receive $2,000 from the Federal forestry fund. The plans for this co-operative work are now being worked out.

MR. JOHN L. HARTSFIELD DEAD

Kinston Man Dies in Winston-Salem —Funeral at Home.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., June 30.—The funeral of John L. Hartsfield, about 60 years of age, was held here at 5 p. m. yesterday. The remains were brought from Winston-Salem, where Mr. Hartsfield had resided for 18 months past. He was born in this county and spent many years in Kinston. In recent years he spent some time on the Pacific coast. C. W. Hartsfield, a prominent business man and brother to the Winston-Salem man, was at his bedside when death came, having been hastily summoned by wire. Chronic stomach trouble was the cause of Mr. Hartsfield's demise. Besides a widow and one brother, the following sisters survive: Mrs. W. H. Brock, Kinston; Miss Bettie Hartsfield, Kinston; Mrs. Fordham, Jones county; Mrs. J. P. Nun, Kinston; Mrs. Willie Nunn, Winston-Salem; Mrs. Rose Ashe, Birmingham, Ala., and Mrs. J. J. Dunn, Kinston.

SWEDEN SPINNERS TO GET 10,000 BALES MONTHLY.

British Government Allows Importation to That Extent.

Washington, June 29.—The British government announced through its embassy here today an agreement with the Swedish Cotton Spinners Association for unrestricted importation into Sweden of 10,000 bales of cotton each month if consigned to the association.

That amount is said to be more than twice the normal consumption of Swedish cotton mills and fully acceptable to those importers.

The embassy here notified its consular officers throughout the United States.

WILSON FOR CHAUTAUQUAS

Permanent Chautauqua Association is Organized.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Wilson, N. C., June 30.—As a result of two consecutive summer chautauqua assemblies, Wilson has organized a permanent Chautauqua association. The new organization starts off with 60 members and with 450 tickets to the Chautauqua of 1916 already subscribed. It is the purpose of the association to secure for Wilson a mid-winter chautauqua in addition to the summer assembly. The present Chautauqua has proven a delightful occasion and the attendance is far above 1914.

THEATRICAL

That versatile and accomplished young dramatic star, King Baggot, presents as a headliner at the home of "The Incomparable Movies" today one of his very greatest two-reel masterpiece productions, "A Life in the Balance." Endowed with the natural ability to play any role upon which he is called to portray, and do it with all the honors, King Baggot in this great two-reel Imp dramatic photoplay accomplished almost unheard of volume of the highest dramatic art, and makes this picture one of the very biggest offerings of the week from a strong dramatic standpoint. He is ably supported by Jane Gail, who so greatly added to the charm of "A Strange Disappearance" by her masterly acting of the leading feminine role.

"A Duke for a Day" is another one of those great Joker comedy screams, and features popular and laughable Max Asher with Gail Henry supporting him in the laugh making. It is a continual scream" from beginning to end.

"The Last Act," is termed "a play within a play", one of those unique productions which Ben Wilson and Dorothy Phillips are noted for. It is a dramatic production, the unique plot being entirely original and new.

"The Doll Wife" features that peerless dramatic star, Ethel Grandin, and will be found one of her very greatest single reel productions.

Paramount Day at Grand.

Today is Paramount Day at the Grand theatre. This means that a great treat is in store for the good people of Wilmington, the management could not have selected a better feature. Mr. Max Figman and Lotta Robinson, former stars in the "Man on the Box", and who needs no introduction to the theatre-going public, will be seen in "What's His Name," a five-reel feature made from Geo. Barr McCutcheon's novel. Mr. Figman in "What's His Name," portrays the roll of a soda clerk and Miss Robinson is seen as a chorus girl risen to fame and forgetting her husband. The story is one of the most fascinating romances McCutcheon has ever turned out and is said to be more fetching than even "Brewster's Millions" by the same author.

The Grand management is looking forward to a big day's business and should be congratulated in securing such a wonderful picture.

In addition to the five-reel production the Vitagraph company will present Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew in a one-reel comedy, "The Story of a Glove," by Paul West. The glove belongs to his wife, but he doesn't know it. He finds it in his pocket, tells a yarn about it and sticks to it, so if you want a good laugh and see the greatest pictures that money can buy, visit the Grand today. Admission for the children 5 cents; adults 10 cents. Don't criticise the price until you have seen the show.

CHILD CRUSHED TO DEATH.

Shocking Accident Occurs Near Rocky Mount.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., June 30.—Crushed beneath the wheels of a wagon heavily loaded with lumber, Charles Bernard Jackson, the four and a half-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Jackson, sustained injuries yesterday afternoon from which he died within an hour after the accident. From what could be learned here, the youth was with his father at a point near the home which is two and one-half miles from this city, and the wagon was being loaded with lumber when the mule became frightened and ran away, the wheels of the wagon passing over the boy's body and causing internal injuries from which he died within an hour.

SOUTH CAROLINA MILITIA OFFICERS ARE RETAINED

Attorney General Gives Opinion that They May Hold Commissions

Columbia, S. C. June 29.—Attorney General Peebles in an opinion handed down today held that officers of the seven militia companies mustered out of service by Governor Manning during the reorganization of the State militia immediately after Governor Blease had disbanded the entire organization, can retain their commissions under State law. The opinion raised the point that Governor Blease's proclamation that the re-organization of the militia might be nullified.

GOES TO NEWBERN.

Prof. H. B. Smith, of Tarboro, Succeeds Superintendent H. B. Craven.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., June 30.—Prof. H. B. Smith, superintendent of the city schools at Tarboro, who has ably and excellently served that position for the past several years, has resigned that position and will within the next few weeks take over the superintendency of the Newbern school system, to which position he was recently elected. Mr. Smith succeeds Prof. H. B. Craven, who resigns as superintendent of the Newbern schools after five or six years' service.

Wilson, N. C., June 30.—Edward Cobb, formerly a resident of Wilson, and a young man of fine parts, died at Pinetops Tuesday. The remains were brought here for burial Wednesday and services were conducted at Maplewood cemetery, Rev. T. W. Chambliss, of the Baptist church, officiating.

FIRE DEPT EDDYTORIUL

There was a speshial called mtg of Bingville cittizens in the Town Hall last Thursday evg to discuss the perprietty of improoving the Fire Dept of Bingville in some manner or tother if possibil.

The mtg was cald to order by Cyrus Hoskins chairman of the Bingville Board of Trade who made a short speesch to the effeckt of what the mtg had been called for namely to discuss ways & means of improving the Fire Dept whitch Cy askt what was they a going to do about it if ennythink, then he set down.

Arioch Perkins riz up and said that the Fire Dept of Bingville was a disgrase to the town being as it consisted at the present time of only six water pails in the basement of the Town Hall four of whitch had been lost strayd or stole and tother two pails had went to staves and leakd like a cupple of sives and that if a turrible hollycost was to break out in Bingville the hull blamed town would like as not be burnt to the ground and become a total loss with no inshoorants! Then Arioch set down.

Lem Brown our expert carpenter next spoke. Lem said that Arioch had crittycised the B. F. D. but that he haddent offerd enny remedy for same. Lem said enny blame fool fool could crittycize but it took a smart man to think up a remedy. Then Lem sujjested a remedy as follers:

Let the town of Bingville purchase a horse, also a duzzen new pails and a waggin, even if Bingville had to ishue bonds to do so. Lem said the horse would be town propperty and could be kep in the shed back of the Town Hall and the waggin also and when a fire broke out then the horse could be hitched up quick to the waggin and drive with the water pails to the scene of the conflagrashion as fast as the horse could run thus saving a lot of time. Then Lem set down.

Next Jason Tucker, Cheef of the Fire Dept got to his feet. Jase said he thort Lems sujjestshion was a awful good one and as cheef of the Fire Department he (Jase) would volunteer to drive the horse to the fire even at the risk of his own life being as he was used to doing that as a brave fireman fighting fires whitch had broke out in the past. Then Jase set down. Jest after Jase set down he whisperd to Hank Dewberry who set next to him so loud that everybuddy in the hall heerd what he said, that the reason he volunteard to drive the horse & waggin to the fire was becuz he'd allus ruther ride than walk.

Then Eph Higgins our accommodating P. M. got up and said he mooved that the horse and waggin and new pails be purchased by the town and that Jase Tucker be appinted to drive the horse to fires and also to take care of the horse betwixt fires sitch as currying, bedding down at nights feeding et cettery too numerous to mentchion.

Afore ennybuddy could seckond the moshion Jase jumpt to his feet and said he was agin enny sitch moshion as that. Jase said that he was willing to drive the horse but hed be doggoned if hed take care of the animile being as he was the Cheef of the Bingville Fire Dept and not a publick town horstler and hed resign 1st! Then Jase clapt on his hat and went home maddern a wet hen.

After Jase went out nobuddy seckonded the moshion being as they diddent want to lose Jase as Cheef becuz the office dont pay nothink and nobuddy else could be got to take it probably and the only reason Jase ackts as cheef is fer the glory of it and gettin to wear a bright fire badge marked cheef on his chest at all times.

After further discushion on the subjeckt the meeting adjourned siny die without nothink being did to improve the dept whitch is in jest the same condishion it was before the mtg was helt and will probably remain in the same condishion for yrs. in the fuchure.

Jaspar Tarbell whilst leanin over a fence smokin his pipe and watchin his corn sprout last Sunday morning got a awful surprise when his old ram sheep butted him from behint without no warning whatever strikin Jasp with sich vilence that it nearly broke him in two and the fence also. Jasp got on tother side of the fence as quick as possibil and limpt home. He says that he persooms the ram butted him jest for the fun of the thing without meanin no harm, but that it wassent no joke and that he'll sell the ram reasonable to ennybuddy desiring to buy a ram. Good reasons give for selling.

Narrer Excape for Sime

Sime Winslow had a narrer excape from takin a long journey into the Valley of the Shadder last Tuesday as follers:

Sime was jest a going to give his two yr old bay colt a forkful of hay when all to onct he seen a rat runnin along a stringer overhead, so Sime dropped the hay and hauled off and struck at the rat, missing the rat and hittin the colt a awful wallop on the rump.

Ranse thinks that the colt thort he done it a purpose becuz then the colt hauled off with his hind heels and kicked at Ranse as hard as it could kick. Ranse says that one hoof jest mist his right ear by the frackshion of a inch and that the other hoof mist his left ear by the same distance. Before the colt could kick again Ranse jumpt outen harms way but he says that his nees got weak under him when he thort of how neer he come to havin his brains kickt out.

The rat excaped.

Awful Disgrase for Heck

Heck Piper from down Snake Bend way driv a new horse he purchased recent into Bingville tother day jest to show it off to the inhabitants we persoom. Heck come drivin down street licketty split, rared back in the buggy seat and proudern Lucifer, and when he got to Hen Weathersbys store where there was a crowd of our most respeckted cittizens settin in the shade of the front piazzer discussin the current topicks of the day and smokin Heck pulled up and hollerd "Whoa!" until he could be heerd all over Bingville.

Heck went into the store and purchased five cents worth of seegars, then he got into the buggy and clucked to the horse, but the horse wouldent move a inch—the horse had balked. When Heck struck the horse with the whip it up with its heels and split the dashboard of the buggy in two! Heck got out and tried to lead the horse, but it jest laid its ears back and wouldnt budge. By this time everybuddy was gigglin and laffin at Heck, who was cussin sôft and perspirin very free.

Suddintly as Hecks back was turnd the horse started off with the buggy like a shot and aint been heerd from sinst. It is probably goin yet. As for Heck he had to walk all the way home, and a madder man yon nevver seen. We persoom Heck will avoid Bingville in the fuchure.

Births

Up to the hour of going to press there is no birthis in our midst to record in this ishue, but we have strong hopes to being able to a nounce a addishion to a certain fambily in Bingville by next wk.

We held off going to press with this ishue of the Boogle until the last minnit in the hopes that this contemplated vissit of the Stork to whitch we have allooded would materialise, but it diddent.

We have knowd for some time that sitch was the case becuz events of this nachure allus in some manner or other casts their shadders before, as we might say figgeratively.

To go into enny further details of this matter at the present writing would be prematoor. Sufficeth to say watch next wks Boogle and you will be informed on the subjeckt.

Lokal Breefs

We are glad to state that the roads is mutch bettern they was a spell back, the mud holes not being haff as deep as they was.

The weather is also improoving along with the roads—nise bright days and cool nights but a leetle mite of rain wouldnt hurt the crops none.

Miss Molly Tucker, one of our handsomest young ladies, aint been feeling very well lately. Molly thinks its her liver. If you think that Molly, why dont you take a bottel or two of livver regerlator?

The Widder Henderson had a ole dominecker hen to come offen the nest with seven little ducks last wk. It seems that the hen chased the old duck offen her nest, and being as she desired to set herself, she hatched out the eggs. The ole hen was as proud as ennythink of her brood until they went into the pond back of the house then the old hen went into histericks.

Sime Cooper is at present engaged in whitewashing his henhouse. The way Sime lookt last night after he had whitewashed the henhouse we shotld say offhand that he got most as mutch whitewarsh on his hisself as he did on the henhouse. Be that as it may the new whitewarshed henhouse will add mutch to the beauty of the town. Why dont others whitewarsh their henhouses? Anser—We dont know.

Hen Weathersby prop of our genl store when he went to strike a trial balants when he posted up his books at the end of the month was out 15 cts whitch he couldn acct for. Hen went over his figgers time and agin until he had a hedake, but he couldn seem to lokate the 15 cts, so at last in disgust he reecht into his pocket and paid the 15 cts hisself charging it to his own personal acct. Hen says he calkilates he done at least two days work hunting for them 15 cts and hed a good eal ruther pay the amt hisself and call it square.

Doc Livermore our expert horse dockter & huming speshialist puld a tooth tother day for Ranse Hillyer and Ranse said he thort to goodness that Doc was a going to pull his head offen his shoulders. Doc charged Ranse haff a doller for pulling the tooth whitch Ranse thort was too mutch. Ranse said he persooms if Doc had of puld his head off he would of charged him $5.

Tother day while Harve Hines was shaving Cy Hoskins he looked out the winder to see a team passing and inadvertantly cut off a wart on Cy's chin whitch has been there for lo these menny yrs. Cy woke up with a screech, but when he found that Harve had sliced off the wart he said he was glad of it, being as that wart was allus a eyesore to him and he would of had it cut off long before if he had only ol had the curridge.

Personal Squibs

Mrs. Hez Andrews baked a batch of whole wheat bread last Satterday, but she thinks she overbaked it a leetle mite because it was hardern a stone, and when Hez went to take a bite of the crust he split his upper set clean acrost and his teeth dropt outen his mouth in two pieces! Hez says he dont calkilate he desires enny more whole wheat bread of this descripshion.

We desire to call attenshion to the fackt agin that folks continues to dump their rubbish et cettery into the town well on the publick square. This ort to cease at onct. If it dont the watter wont be fit to drink. It aint fit to drink now for that matter.

If ennybuddy or enny of our subscribers happens to have a coppy of the Boogle of Aug. 4, 1876, we wisht they would donate same to us being as tother day when we was examining our files we was pained to discover that the copy of the Bugle of the above date is missing. To whoever will furnish us with a coppy of this Bugle we will reward them with our heartfelt thanks.

HAVE YOU GOT RATS?

Some folks has rats in their atticks and some has em elsewhere. Then agin there is some who dont have em at all. This advertisement is speshially for the benefit of them as has rats on their premises.

This is to a nounce that I have discovered a turrible good medisin to eradikate rats. Tother day whilst I was mixin up a dose of medisin to try in the case of one of my pashients who is critikally ill and on who I have tride about everythink for man and beast I can think of, I left some of this medisin in a bowl on the table and a rat come along and drunk some of it and died in turrible agony afore it could git into a hole.

When this happend I desided instid of using this medisin whitch I had discuverd for human beings to use it as a pizen for rats whitch I am a going to do. I have made up a whole mess of this medisin and offer it for sale in little bottels at the rates of 10 cts per bot.

Just pour a few drops on a peece of bread and place the bread near a rat hole then when the rat comes outen its hole and eats the bread its good-by rat! This will also kill cats & dogs as well as rats so if you have enny of latter whitch you dont further desire around the premises this is the stuff.

If you are thinking of buying enny rat pizen see me 1st about it or you will regret it.

Yours for Rat Pizen

COTTON MADE SLIGHT GAIN

Market Was Quiet With Fluctuations Irregular—Cables Steady—Accounts Evened Up.

New York, June 30.—The cotton market was quiet today with fluctuations irregular and business appeared to be largely in the way of evening up accounts for over the government crop report expected tomorrow. Early advances were not fully maintained, but prices closed steady at a net gain of from 2 to 4 points.

The cables were relatively steady and the market opened at an advance of 2 to 5 points with the active months selling about eight points net higher during the early trading on covering and some fresh buying which was doubtless encouraged by the more bullish view of the crop's condition.

Two reports were published before the opening, one making the condition 79.4 per cent and the other 79.7 per cent. Later a third report placed the condition at 79.5 per cent, comparing with last month's official figures of 80 per cent, while the other estimated it at placed the reduction in acreage at 16.9 per cent, while the other estimate it at 15.1 per cent less than last year. Prices sagged off with selling rather more in evidence after the publication of fourth crop report making the condition 81 per cent and of the weekly weather report which read more favorably than expected. On a reaction of five or six points from the best, however, offerings tapered off and there was little further change in prices with the market quiet but steady late in the afternoon.

The cotton futures market closed steady.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

Moderate Buying Stimulated—Trading Months Make Net Advance.

New Orleans, June 30.—After a steady period in the early trading cotton sagged off today under small business and liquidation from the long side and closed at the lowest levels, one point up to one point down compared with the last quotations of yesterday. At the best the trading months were at a net advance of 5 to 7 points. Moderate buying was stimulated around the opening by good cables, continued rains in Oklahoma and boll weevil complaints from Texas. The market held steady until the weekly weather reports were issued. These were more favorable than expected and prices commenced to work lower. Late in the session the market softened and closed easy.

Private forecasts of the government reports tomorrow were bullish but they did not affect prices to any extent.

Cotton futures closing: July 9.15; October 9.54; December 9.75; January 9.56; March 10.07.

Cotton, spot firm, unchanged, middling 9.00; sales on the spot 435 bales, to arrive 185.

Official noon closing: June, 5.10½ value; June-July, 5.10½ value.

COTTON SEED OIL MARKET

New York, June 30.—Cottonseed oil was firm today on covering of shorts, inspired by the withdrawal of pressure in July and strength in lard. Distant months showed most firmness on increased demand for January from local refiners. July tenders were about 3,100 barrels. Total sales 13,400 barrels.

The market closed firm. Spot 6.13 to 6.30; June —; July 6.20 to 6.25; August 6.42 to 6.43; September 6.58 to 6.60; October 6.64 to 6.65; November 6.55 to 6.57; December 6.58 to 6.60; January 6.66 to 6.67; February 6.66 to 6.74.

WHEAT CONTINUED ADVANCE

Heavy Rains Tended to Give Traders a Bullish View of Market—Corn and Oats Make Gains Also.

Chicago, June 30. — Unexpected heavy rains in Oklahoma, Kansas and Missouri tended to drive a majority of wheat traders today to the bull side of the market. As a result, prices closed firm at ⅞ to 1½c. net advance. Corn gained ⅝ to ⅞, net; oats wound up ⅛ to 1c. higher, and provisions with a rise of 5 to 20.

Grain and provisions closed:

Wheat — July, 1.06⅝; September, 1.02½.

STOCKS WERE UNSETTLED

Foreign Exchange Was Weak—Increased Offerings American Securities—Market Irregular.

New York, June 30.—Increased offerings of American securities for foreign interests and the uneasiness arising from further weakness in all branches of the foreign exchange market provided the motives for today's irregular and halting stock market. Europe's persistent liquidation of American bonds has assumed such proportions as to form the topic of general discussion in banking circles. Some high grade issues in the railway division show losses of 1 to almost 3 points for the week.

Apart from these conditions, the stock market lapsed into extreme dullness in anticipation of coming holidays. A few of the better known railways, war specialities, coppers, petroleums and motor specialties made early gains of 1 to 3 points, some of which was later forfeited.

The general bond list was heavy at variable concessions. Total sales par value, aggregated $3,710,000.

United States bonds unchanged on call.

WITH A. C. L. 44 YEARS

Oldest Colored Employe of System Dies at Rocky Mount.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., June 30.—Dan Whitehead, the oldest negro employe of the Atlantic Coast Line, if not the oldest employe, and a respected colored citizen who has accumulated some little property here, is dead, aged 65 years, and after 44 years of uninterrupted service with this system. The negro has for 40 years been a fireman on the first division and he helped in the building of what is known as the "Short-cut" between Contentnea and Pee Dee, S. C., and he fired the first engine that made the trip over the road.

RESERVE BANKS MAY NOT COUNT BONDS PURCHASED

Board Rules They Will Be Required to Buy Additional $25,000,000 Worth.

Washington, June 30.—The Federal Reserve Board today decided that reserve banks which have bought government two per cent. bonds previous to December 31, 1915, may not count them as part of the $25,000,000 worth which the Federal Reserve Act provides they may be required to purchase each year. About $750,000,000 worth of the two per cents. are held by national banks against circulating notes, and the bank law provides for their retirement at the rate of $25,000,000 a year. The purpose of today's decision was to have the banks begin purchases of bonds next year.

OFF TO ATLANTIC CITY.

Delegates Leave to Attend National Anti-Saloon Convention.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 30.—Superintendent R. L. Davis and his office secretary left today for Atlantic City to attend the workers' conference there July 1-3, preceding the National Anti-Saloon League Convention.

The last word from the superintendent was that new inquiries were constantly coming into the office from parties who intend going and he asked that the following information for the benefit of others that desire to attend be published:

"North Carolina headquarters will be at Hotel Monticello, Kentucky avenue. The summer excursion rate, equivalent to 2 cents per mile, is now on at all the railroad points of any size in the State and ticket under same can be secured on application, which ticket will allow stop-overs as desired by parties. In purchasing ticket, arrange for the stop-overs. The North Carolina delegation will get together at Washington, D. C., union station, Monday afternoon, July 5th, and leave there at 4 o'clock over the Pennsylvania for Atlantic City, N. J. See that your ticket from Washington to Atlantic City reads over the Pennsylvania. Badges will be furnished all delegates at Washington.

"Any that cannot reach Washington Monday in time to go with the delegation, can leave Washington as late as 12:40 P. M. Tuesday and reach Atlantic City before the opening session of the convention proper at 7 o'clock Tuesday night. We have the assurance of delegates from all over the State."

They tell a story of a man in a great city who forgot his own name. He put an ad. in the paper. Within a few hours he was quizzed by so many curious people that he put an ad. in a later edition stating that he wanted to stay lost.

CAROLINA MOVIE MEN COMING TO THE BEACH

Annual Convention Held in Fayetteville Yesterday.

Mr. P. W. Wells, of Wilmington, Elected President State League—Outing at Wrightsville Beach Next Month.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Fayetteville, N. C., June 30.—The North Carolina Moving Picture Exhibitors' League held their annual convention here today in the Lafayette hotel with quite a good attendance. The following officers for the ensuing year were elected:

P. W. Wells, Wilmington, president; L. B. Davis, Raleigh, first vice president; M. W. Jordan, Laurinburg, second vice president; S. A. Lambert, Fayetteville, treasurer; W. S. Wishart, Lumberton, first national vice president; H. T. Drake, Fayetteville, second national vice president.

It was learned today that the Exhibitors' League will censor moving pictures after the National Board of Censorship has passed them.

On August 16 the Exhibitors' League will spend the week-end at Wrightsville Beach and a large time is expected. Delegates will be sent to the National convention of motion picture exhibitors in San Francisco July 12 to 27, though these delegates were not appointed at today's meeting.

JUDGE BOYD APPROVES SALE

Of $35,000 in Receivership Certificates of Grandin Railroad.

Greensboro, June 30.—Judge Boyd of the United States district court of the western district of North Carolina, has approved the sale of receivership certificatese in the sum of $35,000 for the Grandin Lumber Company and the Watauga and Yadkin River Railway Company, which was placed in the hands of Receiver Grandin a few weeks ago. Of this amount $20,000 will be applied for the benefit of the lumber company and $15,000 for the railroad. The money, according to the petition, is to be used in paying taxes and insurance and properly maintaining and conserving the property of the two companies.

ODD FELLOWS GAINING

Jones Reinstatement Rally Will Be Continued Through July.

From the semi-annual reports which are coming in from the subordinate Odd Fellow Lodges, Assistant Grand Secretary John D. Berry, of Raleigh, states that the order is making rapid gains. The Jones reinstatement rally from June 1 to July 8, in honor of the 60th anniversary of induction into office of Grand Treasurer R. J. Jones, of Wilmington, has proven to be an important factor in the increase. However, it has been decided to continue the rally through the month of July.

The installation of Mr. Jones as grand treasurer on July 8 in Wilmington under the auspices of the local lodges will be a big event in Odd Fellow circles and will be attended by many prominent members of the order.

BLANTON TAKES POISON.

Virginia Boy Employed in Local A. C. L. Office—News from Norfolk.

News came from Norfolk yesterday that Frank S. Blanton, who is employed here in the Atlantic Coast Line offices, had taken poison there Tuesday night and was in a dying condition. No later report has reached here.

Mr. Blanton came to Wilmington about four months ago and secured a position with the Coast Line. He was a very companionable fellow and made many friends during his short stay in this city. Since the word was scattered on the streets yesterday, many friends have been anxious to know about his condition. He is a son of a retired blacksmith in Blackstone, Va.

HERBERT O. SINK ADMITTED.

To Practice Before Supreme Court of District of Columbia.

Washington, D. C., June 30.—Herbert O. Sink, clerk to Senator Simmons, was today admitted to practice law before the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia. Mr. Sink is a Lexington boy. He studied law and graduated from Georgetown University in the class of last year.

Mrs. W. K. Martin, of Wake Forest, and Mrs. W. B. Allen, of Greensboro, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Martin.

because of evidence alleged to connect him with the new revolutionary movement, but had agreed to a suspension of sentence. Whether Ressa would be used as a witness at tomorrow's hearing was uncertain.

The reported arrival of Felix Diaz in El Paso last night still remains a mystery, all efforts to locate him having failed. The status of the peace proposals between Villa and Carranza factions as announced by Jose Isabel Robeles remained unchanged.

HAD PELLAGRA; IS NOW CURED

Hillsboro, Ala.—J. W. Turner, of this place, says: "I ought to have written you two weeks ago, but failed to do so. I got well and then forgot to write you. I can get about like a 10-year-old boy; you ought to see me run around and tend to my farm. I can go all day just like I used to. I am so thankful to know there is such a good remedy to cure people of pellagra."

There is no longer any doubt that pellagra can be cured. Don't delay until it is too late. It is your duty to consult the resourceful Baughn.

The symptoms—hands red like sunburn, skin peeling off, sore mouth, the lips, throat and tongue a flaming red, with much mucus and choking; indigestion and nausea, either diarrhoea or constipation.

There is hope; get Baughn's big Free book on Pellagra and learn about the remedy for Pellagra that has at last been found. Address American Compounding Co., box 2097, Jasper, Ala., remembering money is refunded in any case where the remedy fails to cure.—Adv't.

GREGORY WILL DEFINE LAW ON RESIGNATIONS

Asks Secretary Garrison For Statement of Facts

Resignations of Army and Navy Officers Have Recently Created a Problem for Secretaries of Two Departments to Solve.

Washington, June 30. — Attorney General Gregory today asked Secretary Garrison for a statement of the facts in the case of Lieutenant Colonel Odus C. Horney, the army ordnance officer, commanding Picatinny Arsenal, at Dover, N. J., whose resignation to take a position with the Dupont Powder Company prompted Mr. Garrison to ask for an opinion as to an officer's right to resign in time of peace.

Mr. Garrison will decide the feasibility of accepting resignations of ordnance officers after the attorney general has decided what the law is. Mr. Garrison pointed out today that the question might be raised whether an ordnance officer might not be doing the government a good service in resigning if his resignation meant the development of commercial arms and ammunitions plants.

Two naval constructors, W. B. Ferguson and J. E. Otterson, have presented their resignations as a result of large salary offers made by shipbuilding firms. Secretary Daniels said today he would not act until Attorney General Gregory's opinion has been delivered.

Constructor Ferguson, who was graduated from the Naval Academy in 1900, is on duty at the Navy Department, and Constructor Otterson, who graduated in 1905, is at the New York navy yard, and also superintends government construction work at the Lake Torpedo Company's plant, at Bridgeport, Conn. Both have fulfilled the terms of the contract signed when they entered the academy to give eight years' service, including the time spent at Annapolis.

Secretaries Garrison and Daniels conferred today over the resignation problem.

RIOTING IS CHARGED AGAINST GEORGIANS

to commit an unlawful act against the governor or his property.

If it was found that two or more went on the governor's premises, the judge said, that act would be trespass.

"The people of this county have had much to bear in the last two years," said Judge Hill in concluding his charge, "much to arouse their indignation and resentment. They have had fake detectives imported and efforts made to impeach the verdict of a jury by perjury. Our courts have been caricatured by papers outside the state. In Georgia very few journals have raised their voice in defense of the courts. With one or two possible exceptions the press of Georgia has maintained silence."

of that state asserted they would no longer suffer levies for the support of any military faction. The stand taken by Oaxaca has been reflected in other states and in many cities, it is said and it is declared that now a large portion of the non-combatant population is quietly exerting its influence against continued disorders.

NOT COMPELLED TO ANSWER INCRIMINATING QUESTIONS

Midshipman Moss Continued Testimony Before Naval Court of Inquiry.

Annapolis, Md., June 30. — The government's right to require defendants in the "cribbing" inquiry at the Naval Academy to testify was questioned at today's session of the Naval Court by Congressman Carlin of counsel for the defense. He was overruled by the court, however, which stated that each defendant has the right to decline to answer any question he might think would tend to incriminate him.

Midshipman James E. Moss, one of the original seven defendants, recommended for dismissal by Superintendent Fullam continued his testimony, begun yesterday. He denied that there had ever been any secrecy regarding the advance copies of the examination in Spanish which he claims to have received by mail, and which was considered by him and others as nothing but the ordinary type of old "dope," based on former examinations.

Moss told the court that he had written to the Secretary of the Navy that if given a full chance to explain, he could establish his innocence.

"Have you not been given a full chance?" asked Judge Advocate Watt.

"I have not," was the reply.

MINERAL INDUSTRIES ARE IN PROSPEROUS DEVELOPMENT

Mining of Country Stimulated by Dependence for Mineral Products.

Washington, June 30. — General optimistic reports on the nation's mineral industries showing they are prosperous and enjoying a revival of active development, were made today to Secretary Lane in the Geological Survey's mid-year review of mining conditions:

"These reports are significant, and assuring, to all who desire the industrial advancement of the United States," said Secretary Lane, commenting on the report.

This general mining advance has been stimulated by the United States being thrown upon its own resources for mineral products, the enormous orders for war supplies from Europe and comparative freedom from foreign competition.

Enlargement and extensions at iron and steel plants furnish unmistakable evidence of returning business confidence, the report says.

Loss of bunker coal trade at Atlantic ports has been partially offset by increasing coal exports. Coke production has increased considerably. Production of petroleum is believed to exceed that of last year's period.

BRITISH FREIGHTER ARMINIAN IS SUNK; AMERICANS LOSE LIVES

mule trade in the past few months.

Officials here will inquire whether the vessel carried any British officers and what measure of control the British government had over the ship.

Thought Vessel Unarmed.

It is taken for granted that the Armenian was unarmed, as such vessels usually carry no guns of any description. Even if she actually had been under charter by the British government there is an understanding between the United States and Great Britain that none of the latter's ships shall be given clearance from American ports if armed.

Officials late tonight were inclined to the view that the case would hinge largely upon whether the Armenian was given warning and whether she attempted to escape after being ordered to stop. The right of a vessel to attempt to escape upon sighting a hostile warship was upheld in the last American note to Germany in referring to the case of the Falaba and at the same time it was held that after the vessel had stopped upon warning she was not subject to attack until persons aboard had been removed.

From the fact that two shots were fired at the Armenian when the submarine came to the surface some officials think the ship may not have heeded the warning to stop. If this should prove to be the case these officials think subsequent torpedoing could be justified, as it is the duty of the captain of an unarmed ship to yield to capture when actually halted or take consequences of resistance.

CARRIED 106 AMERICANS.

Nineteen Were White Men and Eighty-Seven Were Negroes.

Newport News, Va., June 30.—The British steamer Armenian, sunk June 28, by a German submarine, carried besides her regular crew 106 Americans who were signed aboard here to attend the 1,422 mules which the ship was carrying for use of the English army in the European war zone. Nineteen of the muleteers were white men, while the remaining 87 were negroes.

The white muleteers were: J. M. Monroe, New Orleans, (missing); J. B. McCool, New Orleans; H. H. Brenwik, Des Moines, Ia.; E. Williamson, St. Louis, (missing); Robert Cox, Memphis, Tenn.; Louis Taylor, Bayonne, N. J.; S. R. Sutton, Cartersville, Va., (missing); Edward Pond, Newport News, Va.; Harry Stone, New York, (missing); Charles Driver, Thomasville, Ga., (missing); B. M. Granberry, Montgomery, Ala.; Charles A. Baer, Singers Glen, Va.; Jess Osborn, Sidney, Neb.; Frank Hart, Newport News; F. R. Cline, Atlanta; Edward Brown, Harrisburg, Pa., (missing); M. H. McKeen, Newport News; Louis Eckert, Greenvield, O.; R. K. Brooks, London, (missing).

The Armenian was the first ship of the many carrying live stock from Newport News to the war zone to be attacked by a German submarine. The manifest filed at the customs house shows that her cargo was valued at $291,400.

BOUND FOR AVONMOUTH.

Sailed from Newport News June 17. Was Large Vessel.

New York, June 30.—The Armenian sailed from Newport News for Avonmouth on June 17, in charge of Capt. Trickey.

The vessel was of 8,825 tons gross register, 512 feet long, and had a beam of 59 feet and depth of 35 feet. She was built in 1895 at Belfast.

The Dominion Line is a subsidiary of the International Mercantile Marine. The Armenian was a British steamship.

FROM BOSTON TO LIVERPOOL.

Armenian Had Done Much Service Between American and English Ports.

Philadelphia, June 30.—The Armenian, before the war, plied between Boston and Liverpool. After war was declared she was laid up for several weeks. In February she sailed from Newport News to Liverpool, then made a trip from New Orleans to Avonmouth and Liverpool and later from New Orleans to Avonmouth and Cardiff.

PRESIDENT NOTIFIED.

Will Await Full Official Information Before Deciding on Course.

Cornish, N. H., June 30.—President Wilson was informed tonight of the sinking of the Dominion liner Armenian by a German submarine, and of the fact that a number of Americans were reported lost. It was said he would await full official information before deciding what course to pursue, but that a thorough investigation would be made.

The President has been told that a favorable reply from Germany to the last American note protesting against the submarine warfare was probable and therefore word of the sinking of the Armenian with loss of lives was received here with surprise.

It was said the President had not changed his plan of remaining over July 4th, despite the Armenian incident.

THREE OTHERS TORPEDOED.

German Submarines Sink One British and Two Norwegian Vessels.

London, June 30.—The British steamer Scottish Monarch bound from New York for Manchester with a cargo of sugar, was torpedoed and sunk yesterday by a German submarine. The steamer's crew of 36 men took to the life boats. The captain and 19 men were picked up near the Hook Point lightship, not far from Dunmore harbor, Ireland, and were landed at Dunmore. Heavy seas were running at the time.

The Norwegian ship Cambuskenneth, which sailed from Portland, Ore., February 9th for Liverpool or Manchester, was sunk today by the German submarine U-39. Thirteen members of the crew were landed. Eight other sailors, being German subjects, were taken aboard the submarine.

The Norwegian steamship Gjeso, 1,094 tons gross, also was sunk by a German submarine today. The crew was landed at North Shields. The vessel was sent to the bottom by a torpedo.

NORWEGIAN BARK SUNK.

Crew Takes to Life Boats and Is Landed Safely at Queenstown.

Queenstown, June 30, via London—The Norwegian bark Kotka was sunk today off Fastnet by the gun of a German submarine. Twelve men of the crew were landed at Queenstown after being six hours in life boats.

The Kotka sailed from Stockton, Me., May 5 for an English port.

RESINOL BEGINS TO HEAL SICK SKINS AT ONCE

You don't have to WONDER if Resinol Ointment is doing you good. You KNOW it is, because the first application stops the itching and your tortured skin feels cool and comfortable at last. Why don't YOU try this easy Resinol way to heal eczema or similar skin eruption? Resinol clears away pimples, too, and is a valuable household remedy for cuts, sores, burns, chafings, etc. It has been prescribed by doctors for 20 years and contains nothing to injure the tenderest skin. Sold by all druggists.

HOW TO KEEP BABY'S SKIN WELL

The regular use of Resinol Soap is usually enough to prevent those distressing rashes and chafings to which most babies are subject. This is so, first, because Resinol Soap is absolutely pure and free from harsh alkali, and second, because it contains the Resinol medication, on which so many physicians rely for skin troubles.
